

School of Visual Arts Campus Security Report

In compliance with the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act {20 U.S.C. 1092(f)}

October 1, 2017

School of Visual Arts is committed to the safety and security of our students, faculty, and staff. In accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act {34 CFR 668.46}, this report has been prepared using information supplied by SVA Security, Office of Residence Life, Student Health and Counseling Services, Office of Institutional Research, and the New York City Police Department.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS AND NOTIFICATION

SVA has an Emergency Response Plan that includes information about operating status parameters, incident priorities and performance expectations, shelter-in-place and evacuation guidelines, and contingency and continuity plans. Detailed information about responding to emergency incidents on campus is available at sva.edu/student-life/campus-safety.

SVA transmits critical information to the College community using the following methods:

- www.sva.edu—Emergency notices, including unscheduled closings and facilities evacuations, are posted to the College’s website. Status updates will be published as new information becomes available.
- Main telephone line—Emergency notices, including unscheduled closings and facilities evacuations, are the subject of recorded announcements at 212.592.2000, SVA’s general telephone number.
- All Concerned e-mail—Bulk e-mail messages directed to current students, faculty and administrative staff at their SVA e-mail addresses are used to provide more detailed information in an emergency.
- SVAAlert—SVA has contracted with Blackboard Connect to provide an electronic notification system that allows members of the campus community to receive messages directly to a designated cell phone (as text or voice message), e-mail address and/or landline phone. Registration for SVAAlert is available to current students, faculty and administrative staff 24 hours a day, 7 days a week through MySVA, the College’s Intranet.
- In the event that either the College’s website or the main telephone line are temporarily out of service, the College community will be directed to an alternate website and telephone number via All Concerned e-mail and SVAAlert.

In addition to the methods listed above, SVA officials may deploy other methods for notifying the College community, including security officers, fire brigades and other SVA staff.

Emergency Procedures on Campus

In the event of an emergency, including any serious injury, SEEK HELP IMMEDIATELY. Call 911 from any campus phone, other landline or mobile phone. When 911 answers, stay calm and be prepared to answer the operator's questions, which may include:

- Where is the emergency located?
- What is the emergency? (fire, medical, hazardous material, etc.)
- How did it happen?
- When did it happen?
- What is your name and location?

Do not hang up until you are instructed to do so by the operator. You do not need to know all the answers to these questions, but try to gather as much information as you can. Give a telephone number or other safe location where the emergency responders can call or meet you and wait for the responders at that location.

After the emergency has been responded to, an incident report and witness statement should be filed with SVA Security. Reports concerning an SVA student's physical or mental health will be forwarded to SVA Student Health and Counseling Services, and a staff member will follow up with the student(s) involved, if appropriate.

Timely Warnings and Emergency Management Committee

Under the Clery Act (20 U.S.C. state § 1092) and its implementing regulations, School of Visual Arts, through designated personnel, is responsible for issuing a "timely warning" if a crime has been reported and SVA determines there is a serious or continuing threat to the campus community. In addition, SVA is required to send an "emergency notification" if there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus.

The decision to issue a "timely warning" or an "emergency notification" will be decided on a case-by-case basis in compliance with the Clery Act and after consideration of available fact. The issuance of a timely warning may depend on the nature of the crime, the continuing danger to the campus community, and possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts. Similarly, the issuance of an emergency notification depends upon the particular health or safety threat. SVA will, without delay, take into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the emergency notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

SVA has a standing committee comprising officials from various offices at the College that is dedicated to ensuring the health and safety of the SVA community and the continuity and/or recovery of critical operations in an emergency. The committee meets regularly to review, allocate and coordinate resources; seek guidance from the New York Police Department, New York City Office of Emergency Management and other local authorities; and put in place written response plans.

Emergency Evacuation Procedures

An evacuation drill is coordinated by SVA Security each semester for all SVA facilities. The purpose of evacuation drills is to prepare building occupants for an organized evacuation in case of a fire or other emergency. At SVA, evacuation drills are used as a way to educate and train occupants on fire safety issues specific to their building. During the drill, occupants ‘practice’ drill procedures and familiarize themselves with the location of exits and the sound of the fire alarm. In addition to educating the occupants of each building about the evacuation procedures during the drills, the process also provides the College an opportunity to test the operation of fire alarm system components.

Evacuation drills are monitored by SVA Security, and, in the residence halls, Residence Life to evaluate egress and behavioral patterns. Reports are prepared by participating departments that identify deficient equipment so that repairs can be made immediately. Recommendations for improvements are also submitted to the appropriate departments/offices for consideration.

Shelter-in-Place Procedures

If an incident occurs and the buildings or areas around you become unstable, or if the air outdoors becomes dangerous due to toxic or irritating substances, it is usually safer to stay indoors, because leaving the area may expose you to that danger. Thus, to “shelter-in-place” means to make a shelter of the building that you are in, and with a few adjustments this location can be made even safer and more comfortable until it is safe to go outside.

Basic “Shelter-in-Place” Guidance

If an incident occurs and the building you are in is not damaged, stay inside in an interior room until you are told it is safe to come out. If your building is damaged, take your personal belongings (purse, wallet, SVA ID card, etc.) and follow the evacuation procedures for your building (close your door, proceed to the nearest exit, and use the stairs instead of the elevators). Once you have evacuated, seek shelter at the nearest SVA building quickly. If police or fire department personnel are on the scene, follow their directions.

How You Will Know to “Shelter-in-Place”

A shelter-in-place notification may come from several sources, including SVA Security, Residence Life staff members, other College employees, the federal or NY government, NYPD, FDNY or other authorities utilizing SVA’s emergency communications tools.

How to “Shelter-in-Place”

No matter where you are, the basic steps of shelter-in-place will generally remain the same. Should the need ever arise, follow these steps, unless instructed otherwise by local emergency personnel:

1. If you are inside, stay where you are. Collect any emergency shelter-in-place supplies and a telephone to be used in case of emergency. If you are outdoors, proceed into the closest building quickly or follow instructions from emergency personnel on the scene.
2. Locate a room to shelter inside. It should be:
 - a. An interior room;
 - b. Above ground level; and
 - c. Without windows or with the least number of windows. If there is a large group of people inside a particular building, several rooms maybe necessary.
3. Shut and lock all windows (tighter seal) and close exterior doors.
4. Turn off air conditioners, heaters, and fans.
5. Close vents to ventilation systems as you are able. (SVA staff will turn off the ventilation as quickly as possible.)
6. Make a list of the people with you and ask someone (residence hall staff, faculty, or other staff) to call the list in to SVA Security so they know where you are sheltering. If only students are present, one of the students should call in the list.
7. Turn on a radio or TV and listen for further instructions.
8. Make yourself comfortable.

EMERGENCY INCIDENT GUIDES

This information is excerpted from the School of Visual Arts Emergency Response Plan and is intended for non-emergency personnel. Faculty, staff and students should review these suggested responses to become familiar with what emergency responders expect of them in an emergency. Incidents are listed here based on likelihood.

Medical Emergency

For serious medical illnesses or injuries, call 911 then call SVA Security.

What to do when you call 911:

1. State that medical care is needed.
2. Provide your campus location, including the building and room number if known.
3. Provide the location of the injured or sick person (if different from your location).
4. Provide the person's present condition (e.g. bleeding, breathing erratically, unconscious).
5. Recount the nature of the injury or medical problem if the person has been able to tell you what is wrong.
6. Follow the directions of the dispatcher, who will tell you if an ambulance is required or if the injured individual may be brought in to the emergency room.
7. Remain calm as the emergency responder will arrive at the scene as soon as possible.

What to do while waiting for medical help to arrive on the scene:

1. Return to the injured person; do not leave the scene or leave the injured person alone again.
2. Do not move the injured person.
3. Give first aid if you are qualified to do so.

Report illness and injuries to students to the Student Affairs Office at (212.592.2214). Injuries to employees should be reported to Human Resources at (212.592.2645) within 48 hours of the injury occurring.

- Return to the injured person; do not leave the scene or leave the injured person alone again.
- Do not move the injured person.
- Give first aid if you are qualified to do so.

Severe Weather (Thunderstorms, Winter Storms, Tornado, Hurricane)

1. Students, Faculty and Staff members will receive instructions via SVAAlert of any impending severe weather events.
2. Essential personnel may be required to remain on campus overnight during severe weather events.
3. As a general rule, classes will be held whenever possible.
 - a. If necessary, classes may be moved to alternate classrooms.
 - b. If a faculty member is unable to meet for class, the faculty member must notify his/her department as soon as possible.
 - c. The Registrar will send an email to students enrolled in affected classes. Faculty members should also attempt to send an email to students notifying them of the change. However, students may not receive this as the faculty member may be without power or otherwise have access to email.
 - d. Any decision to close the College will come from the Executive Vice President and will be communicated to the Emergency Management Committee, the Director of Human Resources and a member of Communication staff. This message will be communicated through SVAAlert and other communication means, depending on the scope of the impact.

Watches

This means that conditions are right for severe weather.

1. If you are in the watch area, seek shelter immediately and take precautions before leaving shelter.
2. If you are in a vehicle, get to your destination and seek shelter in a sturdy building expediently.
3. Monitor news sources for updates on weather conditions and effects on the Davidson area.

Warnings

This means spotters and/or radar have identified the weather emergency in the area.

1. If you are in the warning area, seek shelter immediately.
2. If you are in a vehicle, get out and seek shelter in a sturdy building.
3. If the severe weather involves high winds and a building is not available, a depression such as a ditch or ravine may offer some protection.

4. Do not open windows. This can actually increase damage to the building. Stay away from windows and exterior doors.
5. Basements, interior hallways on the lower floors and small interior rooms on the lower floors offer the best shelter.
6. Do not attempt to turn utilities on or off. Do not use landline phones.
7. Report injuries and damage to 911. Notify your departmental office.
8. After the all clear, leave badly damaged buildings and do not attempt to return unless directed to do so by the SVA Security Officers or Facilities Management.

With certain types of severe weather, evacuations prior to the arrival of the weather may be declared by state or local authorities. All SVA community members will abide by these types of evacuations and follow the directions of the declaring authorities.

Flooding

Flooding may be caused by a number of hazards, from severe weather and its impact to a building leak or sprinkler activation. The effects of flooding on a building will be similar; it is the scope of the incident that will vary from localized to building wide.

1. For localized flooding, evacuate the area. If the flooding is caused by a small leak, call the security desk phone or building superintendent. If the flooding covers multiple rooms, is caused by a major leak, or a sprinkler flow, call 911. Give:
 - a. Your location
 - b. Your name and phone number
 - c. Type of incident
 - d. Floor
 - e. Room number
2. Leave badly damaged buildings and do not attempt to return unless directed to do so by the SVA Security Officers or Facilities Management.
3. Do not attempt to turn utilities on or off.
4. Report injuries and damage to 911. Notify your departmental office.

Fire, Explosion or Smoke Emergencies

What to do if the alarm sounds and the strobes flash (In Class E buildings: 132 West 21st Street, 133/141 West 21st Street, 136 West 21st Street, 23 Lexington Avenue, 335 West 16th Street, 380 Second Avenue, 601 West 26th Street):

1. Unless there is smoke or fire on your floor, do not evacuate the space. Wait for instructions that will be issued via the Emergency Public Address System. The building Fire Safety Director will make an announcement informing you of what to do.
2. You may be asked to “shelter in place” (stay where you are), or to vacate the floor. If you are told to vacate the floor, Please leave the floor via the stairwells and descend at least two floors before re-entering the building, or you may continue down to the street level.

3. Never use the elevator during an emergency.
4. Persons that are injured or cannot descend the stairs on their own should wait in the stair well for assistance from the FDNY.

What to do if the alarm sounds and the strobes flash (In Coded Interior Alarm buildings: 205-209 East 23rd Street, 215 East 23rd Street, 214 East 21st Street, 17 Gramercy Park South, 101 Ludlow Street, 333 West 23rd Street):

1. Evacuate the area immediately and proceed via the stairs to the ground floor exits. When leaving a room, please close the door behind you. This will slow the spread of smoke through the building.
2. Never use the elevator during an emergency.
3. Persons that are injured or cannot descend the stairs on their own should wait in the stair well for assistance from the FDNY.
 - Never ignore an alarm
 - Follow the directions of the Floor Wardens or the Fire Safety Director
 - If you are told to vacate an area, please close (but do not lock) the room door. This will keep smoke from spreading.
 - Always vacate the space via the stairs; never use the elevator during an emergency.
 - If you smell smoke or see fire, don't hesitate, activate the nearest alarm pull station and get everyone out of the area.
 - The Security Officer who knows the area involved should meet the Fire and Police Departments, and give specifics. Notify police and/or firefighters on the scene if you suspect someone may be trapped inside the building.
 - Report potential hazards or address fire prevention questions to Office of Environmental Health and Safety at 212.592.2551.

Operating Fire Extinguishers:

1. Never enter a room that is smoke filled.
2. Before opening doors check to ensure it is not hot to the touch. If hot do not open. If warm open slowly to check room/hallway conditions.
3. Portable fire extinguishers can be used for small fires. However, this is at the employee's discretion and an immediate readiness to evacuate is essential.
4. Never use water on an electrical or flammable liquid fire. Use a dry chemical or carbon dioxide extinguisher only.
5. When using a dry chemical extinguisher on a flammable liquid fire, stay back a minimum of 10 feet from the fire.
6. Start at the leading edge of the fire and use a side to side sweeping motion to extinguish the fire.

P.A.S.S.

- Pull the pin
- Aim at the base of the fire
- Squeeze the discharge handle
- Sweep from side to side

Behavioral Concerns or Potential Violence

There is any number of reasons that a person may instill concern in those around them. If someone is in acute crisis, notify 911 and describe the behaviors and actions of that person so the appropriate resources may be dispatched. The following observable behaviors have been indicators of individuals who have engaged in self harm, workplace violence, sexual violence, and criminal violence towards others. It is important when reporting behaviors to relate them in context of the situation and as a total picture of the individual's actions, not as a single factor.

Potentially violent behaviors by a student, staff member of faculty member may include one or more of the following (this list of behaviors is not comprehensive, nor is it intended as a mechanism for diagnosing violent tendencies):

- Increased use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs
- Unexplained increase in absenteeism; vague physical complaints
- Noticeable decrease in attention to appearance and hygiene
- Depression / withdrawal
- Resistance and overreaction to changes in policy and procedures
- Repeated violations of company policies
- Increased severe mood swings
- Noticeably unstable, emotional responses
- Explosive outbursts of anger or rage without provocation
- Suicidal; comments about "putting things in order"
- Behavior which is suspect of paranoia, ("everybody is against me")
- Increasingly talks of problems at home or school
- Escalation of domestic problems into the workplace; talk of severe financial problems
- Talk of previous incidents of violence
- Empathy with individuals committing violence
- Increase in unsolicited comments about firearms, other dangerous weapons and violent crimes.

Suspicious Packages

Two factors to consider if you observe or receive a suspicious package:

The size of the package

The type of threat contained within the package.

What constitutes a "suspicious package?"

No one characteristic makes a package suspicious; include all known factors when evaluating the suspiciousness of any mail or package. Some typical characteristics Postal Inspectors have detected over the years, which ought to trigger suspicion, include parcels that:

- Are unexpected or from someone unfamiliar to you (especially a package that is not consistent with your normal activities, i.e. the admissions office receives letters from people that are not known to the office, but there is a standard size, envelope, etc.)
- Are addressed to someone no longer with your organization or are otherwise outdated.
- Have misspellings of standard words.
- Are addressed to a position or title, not a person, i.e. "Dean, or President"
- Have no return address, or have one that can't be verified as legitimate.
- Are of unusual weight, given their size, or are lopsided or oddly shaped.
- Are marked with restrictive endorsements, such as "Personal" or "Confidential."
- Packages may be unprofessionally wrapped with several combinations of tape used to secure the package and may be endorsed "Fragile-Handle With Care" or "Rush-Do Not Delay".
- Have protruding wires, strange odors or stains.
- Show a city or state in the postmark that doesn't match the return address.

Should you receive or come upon a suspicious package, do not touch the package. Do not open; isolate the package and evacuate yourself and others from the area. Do not put the package in water or make any attempt to render it harmless. Use a telephone in another area (not a mobile phone) and report it immediately to 911.

Information for the 911 Operators:

- Your name
- Your location
- Your telephone number
- A description of the package and why it is suspicious:
- Explosive devices tend to have oily stains, protruding wires, excessive tape or wrapping, excessive postage, or a very lopsided.
- Chemical or Biological agents may have powder on the outside or when opened, or may cause symptomatic responses to people in the area
- Whether the package contains threats or hate based writings that may be criminal violations
- A description of how the package arrived, if known

Crime in Progress

If you witness a crime in progress, do not attempt to intervene. A situation that might appear safe may escalate beyond your control very quickly. You should take the following actions:

1. Call 911 immediately indicating your location.
2. Be observant and try to make the following mental notes:

- Type of event taking place
- Number of individuals present
- Physical characteristics such as race, gender, height, weight, clothing worn, hair, or other distinguishing characteristics
- Description of any weapons used
- Mode of transportation of the individuals

Bomb Threats

Motivation and goals for making a bomb threat usually comes from one of two goals:

The Hoax Caller: The most frequent goal is to create an atmosphere of panic and anxiety, the idea being to disrupt normal activities or operations at the location where the explosive device is alleged to be placed or for the entire college.

The Credible Caller: The caller has a definite knowledge or believes that an explosive device has been or will be placed, and he or she wants to warn of the threat to minimize personal injuries or property damage. The caller may be the person placing the bomb or someone who has become aware of information they believe to be credible.

Bomb Threats may also be transmitted by letter or email. Regardless of the medium the threat; the receiver of that message should immediately call 911 and provide all the information possible.

The following is the information on the ATF's Call Checklist for phone call bomb threats. If a phone threat is received, do not disconnect the call. Keep the caller on the line as long as possible and try to ascertain as much of the following information. If it is possible to transfer the call to 911, do so.

You should note:

1. The time and date you received the call.
2. The telephone number at which the call was received.

The caller's exact wording of the threat?

Questions to Ask the Caller:

1. When is the bomb going to explode?
2. Where is it right now?
3. What does it look like?
4. What kind of bomb is it?
5. What will cause it to explode?
6. Did you place the bomb?
7. Why?
8. What is your address?
9. What is your name?

Description of the Caller's Voice

calm; nasal; angry; stutter
raspy; lisp; excited; slow
rapid; soft; ragged; loud
laughing; crying; clearing throat; normal
disguised; deep breathing; distinct; accent cracking; slurred; whispered; female male; other; familiar*

*If familiar, who did the caller sound like?

Background Sounds

street noises; factory machinery; aircraft noise
animal noises; public address system; music;
clear static; house noises;
television; office typewriters; other language heard

Active Shooter

Definition of an Active Shooter

An Active Shooter is an individual who is engaged in killing or attempting to kill people in a confined and populated area; in most cases, active shooters use firearms(s) and there is no pattern or method to their selection of victims.

Active shooter situations are unpredictable and evolve quickly. Typically, the immediate deployment of law enforcement is required to stop the shooting and mitigate harm to victims.

Because active shooter situations are often over within 10 to 15 minutes, before law enforcement arrives on the scene, individuals must be prepared both mentally and physically to deal with an active shooter situation.

If you are alerted to an Active Shooter on Campus, but not in the building that you are in, SHELTER IN PLACE. Do not leave until notified that it is safe to do so by campus authorities. Evacuating may place you in the range of the shooter, especially if they are moving. If you are not in a building, seek cover in the closest one to you that is not being affected by the incident.

Good preparatory practices for coping with an active shooter situation:

- Be aware of your environment and any possible dangers
- Take note of the two nearest exits in any facility you visit

CALL 911 WHEN IT IS SAFE TO DO SO!

Information to provide to law enforcement or 911 operators:

- Your location

- Location of the active shooter
- Number of shooters, if more than one
- Physical description of shooter/s
- Number and type of weapons held by the shooter/s
- Number of potential victims at the location
- Whether you saw them use explosive devices or plant any explosive devices

HOW TO RESPOND WHEN AN ACTIVE SHOOTER IS IN YOUR BUILDING

Quickly determine the most reasonable way to protect your own life. Remember that others are likely to follow the lead of faculty and staff during an active shooter situation.

- If you are in a room or office, stay there and secure the door
- If you are in a hallway, get into a room and secure the door
- If the door does not lock, barricade the door using furniture

1. Evacuate

- If there is an accessible escape path, attempt to evacuate the premises. Be sure to:
- Have an escape route and plan in mind
- Leave your belongings behind
- Help others escape, if possible
- Prevent individuals from entering an area where the active shooter may be
- Keep your hands visible
- Follow the instructions of any police officers
- Do not attempt to move wounded people
- Call 911 when you are safe

2. Hide out

If evacuation is not possible, find a place to hide where the active shooter is less likely to find you.

Your hiding place should:

- Be out of the active shooter's view
- Provide protection if shots are fired in your direction (i.e., an office with a closed and locked door)
- Not trap you or restrict your options for movement

To prevent an active shooter from entering your hiding place:

- Lock the door
- Blockade the door with heavy furniture If the active shooter is nearby:
- Silence your cell phone
- Turn off any source of noise (i.e., radios, televisions)
- Hide behind large items (i.e., cabinets, desks)
- Remain quiet

If evacuation and hiding out are not possible:

- Remain calm
- Dial 911, if possible, to alert police to the active shooter's location. If you cannot speak, leave the line open and allow the dispatcher to listen

3. Take action against the active shooter

As a last resort, and only when your life is in imminent danger, attempt to disrupt and/or incapacitate the active shooter by:

- Committing to your actions
- Throwing items and improvising weapons
- Acting as aggressively as possible against him/her
- Yelling

HOW TO RESPOND WHEN LAW ENFORCEMENT ARRIVES:

Law enforcement's purpose is to stop the active shooter as soon as possible. Officers will proceed directly to the area in which the last shots were heard.

- Officers usually arrive in teams of two to four
- Officers may wear regular patrol uniforms or external bulletproof vests, Kevlar helmets, and other tactical equipment
- Officers may be armed with rifles, shotguns and/or handguns
- Officers may use pepper spray or tear gas to control the situation
- Officers may shout commands, and may push individuals to the ground for their safety

How to react when law enforcement arrives:

- Remain calm, and follow the officers' instructions
- Put down any items in your hands (i.e., bags, jackets)
- Immediately raise hands and spread fingers
- Keep hands visible at all times

Avoid making quick movements toward officers such as attempting to hold on to them for safety

- Avoid pointing, screaming and/or yelling
- Do not stop to ask officers for help or direction when evacuating, just proceed in the direction from which officers are entering the premises

The first officers to arrive to the scene will not stop to help injured persons. Expect rescue teams comprised of additional officers and emergency medical personnel to follow the initial officers. These rescue teams will treat and remove any injured persons. They may also call upon able-bodied individuals to assist in removing the wounded from the premises. Once you have reached a safe location or an assembly point, you will likely be held in that area by law enforcement until the situation is under control, and all witnesses have been identified and questioned. Do not leave the safe location or assembly point until law enforcement authorities have instructed you to do so.

SECURITY DEPARTMENT

The SVA Security Department has a state-of-the art command center. It operates as both the offices for our security team and our surveillances center, covering the entire SVA college campus. The command center's systems are state-of-the art with digital recording equipment, interface with card access systems and direct access to any cameras. It has several large flat-screen televisions to allow for constant monitoring. In addition it has a sophisticated communications system, which enables any emergency to be handled from the command center. The digital cameras and recording systems cover the interior and exterior of all our buildings, including classrooms, dormitories, lounges and theaters. Hundreds of digital cameras are monitored from this one location. The command center is manned 24 hours a day and seven days a week, with a security management team member. This allows for a quick response to emergency situations, and a focal point for all security-related matters.

Security Services

The Office of Security Services is charged with maintaining a safe and secure environment on campus. Its chief responsibilities include patrolling campus and staffing security desks; lending assistance and coordinating with first responders in emergencies; investigating reports made by students, faculty and staff; and collecting campus crime statistics for the US Department of Education. The office's success depends heavily on cooperation from all those who it is asked to protect.

Security Policies and Procedures

SVA's security procedures have been established to protect you and your personal property, as well as the property of the College. Although all reasonable precautions are taken to safeguard property, it is the responsibility of each member of the SVA community to assist in that effort by not leaving valuable personal articles — wallets or handbags, for example, unattended or in open view at any time. If you see any strangers or suspicious-looking activities, alert the Security Desk in your building immediately. A security officer is on duty 24-hours a day.

Please Note: Security officers have the authority to request to see SVA identification cards at any time. Security officers can detain but do not have the authority to arrest. Currently SVA does not have a voluntary confidential reporting system in place.

NOTIFY SVA SECURITY

After calling 911, contact the nearest security officer at one of the following locations.

Daily Security Log

Every security officer in each SVA building maintains a daily activity log where criminal and non-criminal incidents are reported. In addition, an incident report is generated that includes the details of all criminal and non-criminal acts reported to the security department. The incident reports include the following information:

- (1) the nature, date, time, and general location of each crime; and
- (2) the disposition of the complaint, if known.

The incident reports are then filed for the record and are available for public inspection.

BUILDING SECURITY PROCEDURES

Security in SVA buildings is strictly enforced. All College buildings are open from 8:00 AM to 11:00 PM, Monday through Friday, except during College holidays. Some studios are also open 24 hours, 7 days each week. Overnight stays, visitors and any unscheduled access to SVA buildings and studios must be requested and approved by the appropriate department chair at least 24 hours in advance. Guests must bring picture IDs and receive a visitor’s pass from the security officer. Request for Access forms are available in each academic department office.

Fire Drills

Fire drills are conducted at least twice each year in all campus buildings and are supervised by the fire safety coordinator with the assistance of the fire marshals assigned to each floor. Everyone in the building is required to participate. Drills will be conducted in accordance with the fire safety plan. Notice will be given in advance of a fire drill.

The Facilities and Physical Plant Departments

The Facilities and Physical Plant Departments oversee the operation, maintenance and capital construction of all campus facilities which includes academic, administrative and residential. These departments are also linked to the Security and Environmental Health and Safety Departments. We work closely with each as well as meet regularly with our Residence Life staff to maintain communication on a daily basis and to review upcoming activities and events throughout each semester. The Physical Plant Department implements scheduled preventative maintenance programs at each location to ensure that students, faculty and staff can enjoy a safe and comfortable environment.

Environmental Health and Safety

SVA's Environmental Health and Safety (EH&S) Department functions as a part of the Facilities team and works with the Physical Plant staff as well as Student Affairs and the Educational Departments. EH&S provides environmental monitoring and testing services as well as providing safety information and training to the staff, students and faculty. EH&S also heads SVA's recycling and waste management programs. In conjunction with the Facilities Team, the EH&S Department is working with the NYC Mayor's Office as a participant of the "Mayor's Challenge," a program to reduce our carbon footprint by 30% in ten years.

Parking

The College makes no provision for parking, which is both difficult and expensive in Manhattan. All members of the College community should make their own arrangements with garages or lots in the immediate area of the College.

RESIDENCE HALL SECURITY

All residence halls maintain 24-hour security. The security officers are responsible for monitoring guest and security policies. When entering the building, students must present their SVA photo identification card to the security officer. Students and guests are required to provide photo identification when requested by a security officer or other College official. If students have a concern regarding security services, they should speak to a Residence Life staff member.

Fire Alarm Evacuation Procedures

Evacuation plans are posted throughout residence hall buildings, and fire extinguishers and alarms are located on every floor. Every resident should be familiar with the evacuation procedures and the location of fire extinguishers. Students are responsible for informing their guests of fire evacuation procedures. Anyone concerned or confused about a safety precaution or procedure should consult the Residence Life staff.

Fire Safety

Smoke detectors and sprinklers are located throughout the residence halls. In addition, each room is equipped with a hardwired smoke detector and sprinkler system. Residents may not tamper with or cover the smoke detectors or sprinklers.

Guest Policy

The guest policy allows students to host visitors in a responsible manner. Maximum occupancy follows established fire codes and allows no more than two guests per resident student. Unannounced guests such as food delivery personnel will be asked to wait at the security desk, where they will be announced by the security officer and met by the resident. All other guests are required to sign in at the security desk and show a current government/state issued valid photo ID. The guest's ID will be held at the security desk while the guest is in the building. All short term guests must leave residence hall premises by 11:00 pm, unless prior approval to stay overnight has been granted. If a visitor stays past 11:00 pm, security or a Residence Life staff member will escort the visitor off the premises. Failure to follow the guest policy will result in loss of guest privileges and disciplinary action.

Guest Responsibility

Every guest must have a resident host and be accompanied by the host while in the residence halls. Guests may not have resident's keys at any time. Guests are expected to comply with all College policies and regulations as well as federal and state laws. Residents are responsible for the behavior of their guests and are held accountable for their actions. Should their guests violate any of the College's rules and regulations, the Residence Hall Director, Associate Director of Residence Life, Director of Student Affairs or designee may deny a guest permission to be on the premises.

Overnight Guest Privilege

All overnight guest request forms must be signed by a security officer before 11:00 pm of the day of an overnight visit. Students wishing to sign in a guest under 17 to stay overnight in the residence halls require prior approval from their Residence Hall director. Students can have visitors stay overnight for no more than three consecutive days in a seven-day period, and no more than 10 nights in a month. Should a student wish to have a guest stay for more than the three-day limit, prior approval from the RHD is necessary. An overnight guest request form must be submitted to the RHD at least one business day in advance. Students may pick up approved forms from the security desk or the Office of Residence Life prior to their guest's arrival.

Residents are not permitted to list or advertise their rooms (through Airbnb or any other similar service) or permit guests to occupy them, overnight or otherwise, for compensation. Any violation of this restriction shall be grounds for immediate termination of their residence arrangements.

Residence Hall Violations and Disciplinary Procedures

Residents who violate SVA residence hall policies are subject to disciplinary action. The disciplinary process is described in the following pages. This process does not follow the rules of procedure used in court proceedings, and legal representation is not permitted in any hearing. Additional policies may be communicated to students by written notices posted in the residence halls.

Important: Residents will be held responsible for any policy violations by their guests. Any resident or student who was present when a violation occurred may be subject to disciplinary action even though they did not actively participate in the offense. Prohibited items described in this section will be confiscated.

Complaint Report

Any person may file a report that alleges a violation of a residence hall policy. Any complaint must be made in writing and submitted either to Residence Life via email, to any residence hall director (RHD), or through the completion of a voluntary statement that can be obtained from any security desk.

Judicial Meeting/Hearing

The Residence Hall Director involved will, if necessary, consult with the Associate Director of Residence Life as to whether a hearing should be held by the RHD, or in cases involving allegations of serious violations or repeat offenses, if it should be referred to the Associate Director of Residence Life or the Director of Student Affairs for a hearing.

The resident involved in the violation will receive notice that includes information about who will hear the case, the alleged violations, and the date, time and location of the hearing.

During the hearing, the resident involved may present supporting information, including witnesses. If the student does not attend the hearing, the SVA staff member hearing the case nonetheless will proceed based on the available information and determine an appropriate resolution. The student will be notified in writing of the determination, including any sanctions imposed.

Sanctions

Sanctions include, but are not limited to:

- Written warning
- Community service
- Probation
- Restitution to the College
- Educational project or research
- Mandatory health referral
- Residence hall or room reassignment
- Restriction of privileges
- Residence hall entry restriction
- Suspension from housing
- Dismissal from housing
- Referral to the director of Student Affairs for the matter to be handled as a student code of conduct violation.

Review of a Disciplinary Decision

A student who wishes to contest the outcome of a hearing is encouraged to speak first with the person that issued the sanction. However, if the student wishes to have the matter reviewed by another administrator, the student must submit a request via email to Residence Life within three business days after the student receives notice of the decision.

If the hearing was held by the RHD, the determination whether to grant a review, and if the review is granted, the review itself, will be made by the Associate Director of Residence Life. If the hearing was held by the Associate Director, the determination whether to grant a review, and if the review is granted, the review itself, will be made by the Director of Student Affairs. If the hearing was held by the Director of Student Affairs, the determination whether to grant a review, and if the review is granted, the review itself will be made by the Executive Director of Student Affairs.

A review may be considered if the reviewer believes that: (1) a significant departure has occurred from the procedures described in this handbook that adversely affected the decision; (2) new information, unavailable at the time of the hearing, has become available and such information is reasonably likely to have substantially affected the decision; (3) the sanctions issued were too severe in relation to the student's record or nature of the violation.

The reviewer may or may not include a review hearing, or consider additional information. In their absolute discretion, reviewers may determine to uphold the findings and sanctions of the initial hearing, or to modify any part of those findings and sanctions. Reviewers also may impose additional sanctions in light of new information discovered during the review process. Any decision by reviewers is final and not subject to further review.

Room Inspection and Entry Policies

SVA reserves the right to enter student living quarters to ensure the health and safety of students. Rooms may be entered for emergencies, monthly health and safety inspections, to complete repairs, conduct pest control procedures or to conduct an investigation if there is a reasonable cause to believe that someone may be in danger or in violation of College or civil regulations. Students found in violation of health and safety regulations will be given due notice to remove the violation. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action followed by the confiscation of any item(s) causing the violation.

Preserving student privacy is of paramount importance to Residence Life. Students who believe that their privacy has been compromised should notify their resident assistant or residence hall director.

Fire Drills

Fire drills are conducted at least twice each year in all campus buildings and are supervised by the fire safety coordinator with the assistance of the fire marshals assigned to each floor. Everyone in the building is required to participate. Drills will be conducted in accordance with the fire safety plan. Notice will be given in advance of a fire drill.

Smoking Regulations

In accordance with government regulations, the School of Visual Arts prohibits smoking in any part of its buildings, including private offices, private rooms, hallways, restrooms and all residence halls. Smoking is also prohibited within 25 feet of any building entrance. This includes the use of electronic smoking devices such as e-cigarettes, vapes, etc.

Safety in the City

This program, organized by the offices of Student Affairs and Security, educates students about how to be safe in the city. It also focuses on sexual assault statistics, myths, and how to prevent sexual assault. Tips on how to stay safe, knowing your resources, and consent.

Navigating Your Neighborhood

New students are led on a walking tour of the area surrounding the SVA campus. This program helps students get the “lay of the land” and identify places to go if they are in need of help.

Drug and Alcohol Education Programs

Each semester, Resident Assistants routinely facilitate programs designed to help students understand the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse.

A map of local medical and urgent care facilities is available at Security desks, through the GoSVA app and at sva.edu/health. While medical services are not available on-site at SVA, a registered nurse can assist you in finding specialists and additional community-based resources.

Student Health and Counseling Services does not write medical excuse notes. Students who are not able to attend classes due to illness should notify their instructors and, for conditions requiring an extended absence from classes, their academic advisor.

Counseling

Students are encouraged to speak with a therapist any time there is an issue prohibiting their success at SVA. Counseling offers the opportunity to talk with a non-judgmental person who can offer helpful feedback and also advocate for the student. Free and confidential short-term counseling services are available to all undergraduate and graduate SVA students. Students who need confidential emotional support when the office is closed are encouraged to call the Samaritans (a 24-hour crisis-response hotline) at 212.673.3000 or LifeNet at 1.800.LIFENET (1.800.543.3638). Students can also text HOME to 741741 (Crisis Text Line).

ALCOHOL AND DRUG POLICY

The School of Visual Arts expects all members of the SVA community to assist in maintaining a drug-free environment. The possession, use, distribution, dispensing or manufacture of a controlled substance (illicit drugs, alcohol, etc.) or being under the influence of such a substance on SVA premises, including residence halls, is prohibited and grounds for disciplinary and/or legal action.

Students and employees are prohibited from possessing, using, or distributing illicit drugs and/or alcoholic beverages of any kind on SVA property (including the residence halls) or as part of any event sponsored by SVA or any SVA organization. Pre-approval to serve alcohol to persons over the age of 21 with proper identification may be obtained from the President, Executive Vice President, Provost or their respective designee(s) under certain circumstances.

Any SVA employee, as a condition of employment, is expected to abide by the drug-free workplace policy. In addition, the College is required by the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 to notify all employees and students that they must report any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five days after such conviction.

WHY DOES SVA TAKE A FIRM STANCE AGAINST DRUGS AND ALCOHOL?

As reported in “What Works: Schools Without Drugs,” written by the U. S. Department of Education (1992):

Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including spouse and child abuse. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person’s ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described.

Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life-threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver.

Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than other youngsters of becoming alcoholics.

The adverse health effects of drug abuse vary widely based on the drug or drugs being abused and the manner of ingestion, but often include one or more of the following: fluctuations in heart rate; addiction; anxiety; paranoia; mood disturbances; HIV/AIDS infection; and impairment of short-term memory, attention, judgment, coordination, balance, and even death. Comprehensive data regarding the long-and short-term health effects of commonly abused drugs is available from the National Institute on Drug Abuse, part of the National Institutes of Health, at: <http://www.drugabuse.gov/drugs-abuse/commonly-abused-drugs/health-effects>.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL PROGRAMS AVAILABLE TO EMPLOYEES AND STUDENTS
SVA encourages individuals with alcohol or other drug-related problems to seek assistance through one of the drug and alcohol programs below.

Students seeking assistance are encouraged to speak with a staff member at SVA's Student Health and Counseling Services (340 E. 24th Street, Ground Floor, 212.592.2246, Monday–Friday, 9:00 AM–5:00 PM) for support. Short-term confidential services are provided free of charge.

POSSIBLE DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS IMPOSED BY SVA

Any employee or student found to be in violation of this policy will be subject to sanctions, including, but not limited to, expulsion from SVA or termination of employment, suspension, referral to law enforcement authorities, parental notification (as permitted by the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)), and/or mandatory referral for counseling and/or treatment. For a list of student-specific disciplinary consequences for violations of this policy, see Student Code of Conduct Sanctions, 2017-18 SVA Handbook, p. 66-68.

POSSIBLE SANCTIONS AND PENALTIES IMPOSED BY STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS

A student or employee who violates this policy is subject not only to disciplinary sanctions by SVA, but may be subject to criminal sanctions under federal and/or state law. Conviction of illegal possession, use, and/or distribution of drugs can lead to imprisonment, fines, mandatory community service, and loss of eligibility for some financial aid programs, among other sanctions and penalties.

FEDERAL PENALTIES: CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

The federal Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. 801, et seq., creates a comprehensive scheme of sanctions for offenses involving controlled substances, with penalties of up to life imprisonment and fines ranging into the millions of dollars for unlawful distribution or possession of a controlled substance. The actual sanctions and penalties imposed generally are determined by the seriousness of the offense, the quantity of illicit substances involved in the commission of the offense, and the criminal background of the person convicted of the offense.

For example, federal penalties and sanctions for simple possession of a controlled substance (21 U.S.C. § 844) include, but are not limited to, the following:

- First conviction: Up to one-year imprisonment and a fine of at least $1,000;
- After one prior drug conviction: Up to two-year imprisonment, and a fine of at least $2,500; and
- After two or more prior drug convictions: Up to three-year imprisonment, and a fine of at least $5,000.

Federal trafficking convictions are much more serious, with penalties ranging from 5 years to life in prison, and fines of up to $5 million. For a schedule of penalties for trafficking offenses, see:

- justice.gov/dea/druginfo/ftp_chart1.pdf

Notably, pursuant to federal law, any person found to have unlawfully distributed a controlled substance to a person under 21 may be punished by up to twice the term of imprisonment and twice the fines for a first offense. (21 U.S.C. § 859.) The same applies to distribution or manufacture of drugs in or within 1,000 feet of a college or school, as well as for the receipt of a controlled substance from a person under 18 years of age. (21 U.S.C. §§ 860-61.) Conviction for possession and/or trafficking can also lead to forfeiture of property, loss of entitlement to certain federal benefits, and a criminal record that may prevent an individual from entering certain career fields.

Pursuant to the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, all employees, including student workers, must report any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace to their immediate supervisor and the Director of Human Resources no later than five days after such conviction.

Students who receive federal financial aid (including grants, loans or work-study funding) must report any criminal drug conviction that occurs after the submission of a FAFSA form through the end of the academic year for which the student is receiving aid to the Director of Financial Aid and Executive Director of Human Resources within five days of the criminal conviction. In addition to College sanctions, students convicted of such charges risk the revocation of federal student aid.

NEW YORK STATE PENALTIES: CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

Additional penalties may apply under various New York State drug laws. As under federal law, the actual sanctions and penalties imposed are determined by the seriousness of the offense, the quantity of illicit substances involved in the commission of the offense, and the criminal background of the person convicted of the offense. The New York State Penal Law characterizes more minor drug offenses as “misdemeanors” (offenses punishable by imprisonment for more than 15 days but no more than one year) and more serious drug offenses as “felonies” (crimes punishable by imprisonment ranging from one year to life). Felonies are further classified from A to E, with varying degrees of minimum and maximum sentences; class A felonies carry the longest jail sentences, while class E felonies carry the shortest.

Below are the classifications for some of the more common illicit drug offenses and crimes provided for by the New York Penal Law:

- Sale of a controlled substance on or near school grounds (N.Y. Penal Law § 220.44), or to a person less than 21 years of age (N.Y. Penal Law § 220.39) are Class B felonies;
- Possession of a hypodermic instrument without a doctor’s prescription (N.Y. Penal Law § 220.45), or possession or sale of drug paraphernalia (which includes a wide category of items that are considered drug preparation materials) (N.Y. Penal Law § 220.50), are Class A misdemeanors;
- Injection of another person with a narcotic drug with consent of that person is a Class E felony (N.Y. Penal Law § 220.46).

The full text of the New York Penal Law, including classifications and penalties for all controlled substances offenses (Article 220), is available via the New York State Courts website: <http://www.nycourts.gov/judges/cji/2-PenalLaw/220/art220hp.shtml>.

NEW YORK STATE PENALTIES: ALCOHOL

New York law also prohibits the sale or possession of alcohol in certain circumstances. Below is a list of some common offenses and penalties relating to alcoholic beverages provided for by New York Law:

- Giving or selling alcohol to a person under the age of 21 carries a penalty of up to five days imprisonment and a $200 fine (N.Y. ABC Law §65-a);
- Purchasing or attempting to purchase an alcoholic beverage through fraudulent means by a person under age 21 carries a penalty of up to 30 hours of community service, a fine of up to $100, and/or mandatory completion of an alcohol awareness program (N.Y. ABC Law § 65-b);
- Unlawful possession of alcohol by a person under the age of 21 with the intent to consume carries a penalty of up to 30 hours of community service and a fine of up to $50 (N.Y. ABC Law § 65-c).

The above lists include only a sampling of federal and state penalties and sanctions for conduct involving drugs and alcohol, all of which are subject to change. Additional federal, state and local penalties and sanctions may apply.

ALCOHOL AND DRUG AMNESTY

Considerations for Good Samaritans and Self-Referral: The College recognizes that there may be health or safety emergencies related to the use of alcohol or other substances in which the potential for disciplinary action by the College may serve as a deterrent to students who want to seek assistance for themselves or to “Good Samaritans” who want to get help for another member of the SVA community. In all such matters, the health and safety of the student at risk will be the College’s top priority. Accordingly, should a student, or another individual on behalf of that student, voluntarily come forward seeking assistance in a situation involving the over consumption or abuse of drugs and alcohol, the College’s student conduct response in regard to that overconsumption will be first and foremost focused on medical treatment, counseling and/or educational interventions. However, the College reserves the right to address any associated acts that compromise the well-being of the community and its members such as harassment, violence, damage, harm to self/others, or distribution of illegal substances on a case-by-case basis as deemed appropriate/necessary.

SMOKING REGULATIONS

In accordance with government regulations, the School of Visual Arts prohibits smoking in any part of its buildings, including private offices, private rooms, hallways, restrooms and all residence halls. Smoking is also prohibited within 25 feet of any building entrance. This includes the use of electronic smoking devices such as e-cigarettes, vapes, etc.

Any violation of or dispute arising under this policy should be reported immediately to the director of Student Affairs or the Director of Human Resources. Violations of this policy may result in appropriate corrective action, up to and including expulsion or termination of employment. The directors of Student Affairs and Human Resources will promptly investigate any disputes arising under this policy. Each student, faculty or staff member is protected from retaliatory action or from being subjected to any adverse action for exercising or attempting to exercise their rights under this policy. Any person who feels they have been subject to a retaliatory adverse action for exercising or attempting to exercise any rights under this policy or under any applicable law or regulation concerning the subject matter of this policy should inform the Director of Student Affairs or the Director of Human Resources who will promptly investigate the complaint and provide for adequate redress where necessary. Any questions regarding the smoking policy should be directed to Student Affairs (tel: 212.592.2214; email: studentaffairs@sva.edu) or Human Resources (tel: 212.592.2645; email: hr@sva.edu).

HAZARDOUS AND/OR DANGEROUS MATERIALS POLICY

SVA prohibits the presence or use of hazardous or dangerous materials, including dangerous artists' materials, on campus. If you need more information on the products or materials you are using, please contact the Environmental Health and Safety Office at 212.592.2005 or tring@sva.edu.

The use of spray paint, spray adhesive and spray glue, toxic glues, epoxies and resins is prohibited in any SVA building, including, but not limited to classrooms, studios, offices, residence halls, common spaces and stairwells. The Environmental Protection Agency and the New York City fire code allow for the use of spray paint, spray adhesives and spray glue only in prescribed spray booths. Since no such booths exist on campus, the use of such materials is not allowed.

HOVERBOARDS

Self-balancing scooters, such as hoverboards, are prohibited in all SVA facilities, including all residence halls, academic and administrative buildings, the Student Center and the SVA Theatre. They are also illegal to use on New York City streets and sidewalks.

MISSING STUDENT POLICY AND PROCEDURE

The Federal Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) requires that institutions providing on campus housing establish a missing student notification policy for students living in on-campus housing. In accordance with this legislation, students must be informed that they have the option of identifying an individual that the institution may contact no later than 24 hours after the time a student is determined missing. SVA has a procedure for students to follow to register this confidential emergency contact.

When SVA students complete a housing application and contract using the online housing application portal, they will be asked to provide emergency contact information for a relative or friend that SVA can contact in the event the student is determined to be missing.

In the event that the missing student is under 18 and not emancipated, the institution must notify a custodial parent or guardian no later than 24 hours after the student is determined missing. The emergency contact will be notified by the Director of Student Affairs or his designee.

Upon receiving a report of a suspected missing student, the residence life and security staff will initiate an investigation to determine when the student was last seen, and gather relevant information from friends, roommates, classmates, instructors, and other individuals as necessary. If a campus security or law enforcement personnel makes a determination that a student who is the subject of a missing person report has been missing for more than 24 hours and has not returned to campus, the institution will initiate the emergency contact procedures that the student designated.

For students who do not live in SVA housing, if a student is suspected missing, security staff in conjunction with the Registrar's office and other administrative staff will initiate an investigation to determine when the student was last active on campus. If the student has been missing for more than 24 hours, the emergency contact will be notified by the Director of Student Affairs.

Anyone who suspects that a student may be missing should immediately call the Director of Student Affairs in the Office of Student Affairs at 212.592.2214.

SEX-BASED DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, TITLE IX AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

SVA is committed to complying with Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments Act of 1972, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in employment, academic, student admission and/or financial aid decisions, or in any other programs or activities. Accordingly, all members of the School of Visual Arts community, including applicants, students, employees (both faculty and staff) and third parties doing business with SVA are strictly prohibited from engaging in sex-based discrimination and harassment, sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, dating violence and domestic violence. Individuals with questions or concerns that pertain to sex discrimination, harassment or misconduct, are encouraged to review SVA's Title IX and Sexual Misconduct policies and procedures at www.sva.edu/sexualmisconduct and to speak with SVA's Title IX Coordinator:

Statement of Equal Opportunity

The School of Visual Arts is committed to providing a working, learning, and living environment free from unlawful discrimination and harassment. SVA does not discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, in admissions, financial aid, or employment, or in the administration of any SVA program or activity.

It is the policy of the School of Visual Arts to recruit, hire, promote, compensate and administer all employment practices and benefit programs without regard to race, color, religion, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender (including gender identity or expression), pregnancy, age, disability, national origin, military or veteran status, marital status, alienage or citizenship status, domestic violence status, genetic predisposition or carrier status, partnership status or any other legally protected characteristic.

SVA's policies regarding employment discrimination, including sexual and other unlawful harassment, reflect its responsibility as an educational institution whose environment must be conducive to learning and mutual trust. Its concern is for all members of the College community—students, faculty and staff. Its procedures are designed to address any alleged violations of policy promptly and with equity to all involved, to maintain privacy if possible and to ensure that retaliation does not occur when rights under this policy are exercised. SVA is committed to provide those who feel that they have been subjected to conduct in violation of this policy with mechanisms for seeking redress and resources for support. Accordingly, SVA prohibits retaliation against any person for complaining of a violation of this policy or for participating in any investigation or proceedings related to an alleged violation.

TITLE IX

SVA is committed to complying with Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments Act of 1972, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in educational programs or activities, admission and employment. Under certain circumstances, sexual misconduct (as defined below) constitutes sexual discrimination prohibited by Title IX. Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX may be referred to SVA's Title IX Coordinator, or to the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights.

The safety and well-being of every member of the College is of primary importance. SVA is committed to providing programs, activities and an educational environment free from sex discrimination and fostering a community that promotes prompt reporting of all types of sexual misconduct and timely and fair resolution of sexual misconduct complaints.

Title IX Coordinator

SVA's Title IX Coordinator has overall responsibility for the administration of this Policy and has been designated to coordinate compliance activities under this Policy and applicable federal, state and local laws, including without limitation Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.

Academic Freedom

Nothing in this policy shall abridge academic freedom or the College's educational mission or prohibit genuine contributions to the marketplace of ideas. Prohibitions against discrimination and harassment do not extend to statements or written materials that are germane to the classroom subject matter and circulated in the context of legitimate classroom discourse.

Prohibited Conduct

All members of the School of Visual Arts community, including applicants, students, employees (both faculty and staff) and third parties doing business with SVA are prohibited from engaging in discrimination, discriminatory harassment, sexual or sex-based harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, stalking, and retaliation as those terms are defined below. Any attempt to engage in prohibited conduct may itself constitute a violation of this policy. Any actions knowingly taken to aid, facilitate or encourage another to engage in prohibited conduct and any actions taken for the purpose of interfering in the investigation of an allegation of prohibited conduct shall constitute a violation of this policy. Anyone found to have violated this policy will be subject to disciplinary action as set forth in the procedures below.

Definitions

For purposes of these policies and procedures, the following definitions apply:

Discrimination is defined as:

- Treating individuals or groups less favorably because of their protected characteristic(s); or
- Having a policy or practice that has a disproportionately adverse impact on individuals based on a protected characteristic.

Protected Characteristic refers to any personal trait or category that is protected by law, including an individual's race, color, religion, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender (including gender identity or expression), pregnancy, age, disability, national origin, military or veteran status, marital status, alienage or citizenship status, domestic violence status, genetic predisposition or carrier status, partnership status or any other characteristic protected by law.

Discriminatory Harassment is defined as substantially interfering with an individual's living, learning or working environment by subjecting him or her to severe or threatening conduct or to repeated humiliating or abusive conduct, based on his or her protected characteristic(s). Under this policy, harassment is verbal or physical conduct that belittles or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of a protected characteristic, or that of his or her relatives, friends, or associates, and that:

- Has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive living, learning or working environment.
- Has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or job performance or limiting or depriving someone of the ability to participate in or benefit from SVA's educational programs, activities and/or employment; or
- Otherwise adversely affects an individual's academic or employment experience.

Harassing conduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Offensive or suggestive comments, letters, emails or telephone calls;
- Insults, jokes, teasing, threats, embarrassing comments or other remarks that put people down or make them uncomfortable;
- Inappropriate pictures, cartoons or other objects;
- Making obscene or rude gestures, or ogling or leering at someone; and
- Mimicking a person's accent, or mocking or imitating a disability or stutter.

Sexual or Sex-based Harassment is defined as unwelcome sex-based verbal, visual or physical conduct:

- Has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive living, learning or working environment;
- Has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or job performance or limiting or depriving someone of the ability to participate in or benefit from SVA's educational programs, activities and/or employment; or
- where submission to the conduct is explicitly or implicitly made a term or condition of an individual's education, employment, or participation in other activities sponsored by the School of Visual Arts; or
- where submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as the basis for academic or employment decisions.

Examples of sex-based harassment that may cause a hostile environment include, but are not limited to:

- subtle or persistent pressure for sexual activity;
- unwanted or unnecessary touching, brushing against a person, or blocking someone's movement;
- requesting or demanding sexual favors concerning employment, academic activities or other SVA activities;
- unwelcome, offensive, or suggestive comments or communications (verbal, written, electronic, etc.) of a sexual nature;

- failure to accept the termination of a consensual relationship with repeated and persistent requests and behavior;
- Verbal and/or physical aggression toward another based upon a perception that the other fails to conform to stereotypical notions of expected characteristics for males or females.

Sexual Assault is divided into two categories of behavior: Non-consensual Sexual Contact and Non-consensual Sexual Intercourse.

Sexual Assault--Non-consensual Sexual Contact includes any intentional touching of a sexual nature, however slight, whether clothed or unclothed, with any object or body part by a person against another person that is without affirmative consent and/or by force.[1] Consent is required regardless of whether the person initiating the sexual contact is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol. When consent is withdrawn or can no longer be given due to incapacitation, sexual activity must stop.

Examples of non-consensual sexual contact include, but are not limited to:

- intentional contact with the breasts, buttocks, groin, or genitals;
- intentional touching of another with breasts, buttocks, groin, or genitals;
- making another person touch someone or themselves in a sexual manner;
- any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner.

[1] Conduct that is prohibited by this policy may also be prohibited by New York state law. Relevant definitions and provisions of New York law are contained in the appendix section which is provided for information purposes only. The School of Visual Arts enforces only its policy. Those interested in filing a complaint with the police are encouraged to do so, and SVA will assist any complainant in contacting law enforcement. (See the section on reporting to law enforcement).

Sexual Assault--Non-consensual Sexual Intercourse includes any sexual intercourse, however slight, with any object or body part by a person against other person that is without affirmative consent and/or by force. Consent is required regardless of whether the person initiating the sexual contact is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol. When consent is withdrawn or can no longer be given due to incapacitation, sexual activity must stop.

Examples of non-consensual sexual intercourse include, but are not limited to:

- vaginal penetration by a penis, object, tongue or finger;
- anal penetration by a penis, object, tongue or finger;
- oral copulation (mouth to genital contact or genital to mouth contact).

Domestic Violence includes the use of physical violence, coercion, threats, intimidation, isolation, stalking, or other forms of emotional, sexual or economic abuse directed towards (i) a current or former spouse or intimate partner; (ii) a person with whom one shares a child; or (iii) anyone who is protected from the respondent's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of New York. This includes any behaviors that intimidate, manipulate, humiliate, isolate, frighten, terrorize, coerce, threaten, blame, hurt, injure, or wound someone. Domestic violence can be a single act or a pattern of behavior in relationships.

Dating Violence includes violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship would be determined based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purposes of this definition, dating violence would include, but would not be limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts that meet the definition of “domestic violence.”

Sexual Exploitation includes but is not limited to:

- invasion of sexual privacy and voyeurism (in-person or through audio or video recording);
- knowingly transmitting a sexually transmitted infection;
- exposing of a person’s body or genitals;
- prostituting or soliciting another community member.

Stalking is a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear for their own or others’ safety, or to suffer substantial emotional distress.

Examples of stalking include but are not limited to:

- constantly appearing at places the victim is known to frequent;
- persistent unwanted communication or contact whether in person, by telephone, text, or email;
- persistent unwanted gifts;
- following or surveillance.

Sexual Misconduct includes sexual assault, sexual exploitation, sexual or sex-based harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking.

Retaliation includes Intimidating, threatening, coercing, or in any way discriminating against an individual because of the individual’s informal or formal complaint of a violation of this policy or participation in a school or government investigation or proceedings related to an alleged violation of this policy or related civil rights law. Federal, state and local civil rights laws, including Title IX, make it unlawful to retaliate against an individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by these laws.

Intimidation means unlawfully placing another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack.

Affirmative consent is a knowing, voluntary, and mutual decision among all participants to engage in sexual activity. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in the sexual activity. Silence or lack of resistance, in and of itself, does not demonstrate consent. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

Consent must be freely and actively given; it cannot be obtained by coercive use of force, threats or intimidation. Coercion, force, or threat of either invalidates consent. Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to other forms of sexual activity, nor does past consent to intimacy imply consent to future intimacy. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another. In order to give consent, a person must be of the legal age of consent, which is 17 in New York. A person who is incapacitated for any reason cannot give consent. Consent can be withdrawn at any time.

Incapacitation is a state where someone cannot make rational, reasoned decisions. A person may be incapacitated due to mental disability, sleep, unconsciousness, physical restraint, or from the consumption (voluntary or otherwise) of incapacitating drugs or quantities of alcohol. Sexual activity with someone whom you know or, reasonably should know, is mentally or physically incapacitated (i.e., by alcohol or other drug use, unconsciousness or blackout) constitutes a violation of this policy. Evidence of incapacity may be detected by physical cues, such as slurred speech, bloodshot eyes, the odor of alcohol on a person's breath or clothing, inability to maintain balance, vomiting, unusual or irrational behavior, and unconsciousness. Incapacity may be indicated by the quantity of alcohol consumed. The presence of one or more of these cues does not necessarily indicate incapacity, nor does the absence of these cues necessarily indicate capacity.

Force is the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation and coercion to overcome resistance.

Coercion is unreasonable pressure. The use of emotional manipulation to persuade someone to do something they may not want to do, such as being sexual or performing certain sexual acts, constitutes coercion. Coercing someone into having sex or performing sexual acts does not constitute obtaining consent and is considered sexual misconduct.

Complainant is the person(s) who allege(s) that this policy has been violated.

Respondent is the person who is accused of violating this policy.

Policy Application

When and to whom does this policy apply?

This policy applies to the conduct of School of Visual Arts' applicants, students and employees, including faculty and non-faculty, as well as third parties doing business with SVA or attending SVA sponsored programs or activities.

This Policy applies to any allegation of prohibited conduct made by or against a student, employee or a third party, regardless of where the alleged sexual misconduct occurred, if the conduct is related to the College's academic, educational, or extracurricular programs or activities. This policy shall apply to conduct that occurs on SVA's campus, on SVA technological systems, at SVA sponsored programs, activities and events, as well as off-campus when the accused is a matriculated SVA student or when the conduct has a continuing adverse impact upon the SVA work or school environment. The College's disciplinary authority, however, may not extend to third parties who are not students or employees of the College. Additionally, while this Policy is not limited to on-campus conduct, SVA's ability to investigate off-campus conduct may be limited.

Each student shall be responsible for his or her conduct from the time of application for admission through the awarding of a degree, as well as during periods between terms of actual enrollment, study abroad and leaves of absence or suspension.

Consensual Romantic Relationships

The integrity of the teacher-student relationship is the foundation of the SVA educational mission. As mentor, educator and evaluator, the teacher is entrusted with considerable, and disproportionate, power. This can heighten the vulnerability of the student, and the potential for coercion. Whenever a teacher is responsible for directly supervising a student, a romantic or sexual relationship between them is inappropriate. Any such relationship jeopardizes the integrity of the educational process by creating a conflict of interest, and may lead to an environment not conducive to learning. Therefore, College policy prohibits faculty from having a romantic and/or sexual relationship with their students, including those for whom they are likely to have future supervisory responsibility. Likewise, they must not directly supervise any student with whom they have or have had a sexual relationship.

For purposes of this policy, "direct supervision" includes the following activities (on or off campus): course teaching; evaluations; grading; advising for a formal project such as a thesis or research; recommendations for employment, fellowship or awards. "Teachers" include faculty members as well as graduate and professional students serving as teaching fellows or in similar institutional roles. "Student" refers to those enrolled in any and all programs of the College.

Romantic/sexual relationships between students and staff are likewise prohibited. Such personal relationships often interfere with the efficient operation of SVA, as these relationships can form the basis for misunderstandings, complaints of favoritism, and even claims of sexual harassment.

Exceptions to the application of this policy with regard to staff will only be granted in extraordinary circumstances. It is the responsibility of any staff member seeking an exception to this policy to contact the Human Resources Department. It is also the responsibility of any staff member contemplating activities that might be covered by this policy to consult the Human Resources Department to obtain any desired clarification of whether this policy applies to the activity under consideration.

Violations of, or failure to correct violations of these conflict-of-interest principles by the faculty or staff member will be grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Reporting to Law Enforcement

If you are in immediate danger, dial 911 and/or Security Services at 212 696 4632_and attempt to get to a safe place.

Acts of violence, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, are against the law. If you are not in immediate danger and would like to report an incident to the police, you can do so by contacting:

- The New York City Police Department Sex Crimes Unit at (212) 374-5076 or
- NYPD Precinct 13th at 230 East 21st Street, New York, NY, 10010.

If you would like someone to assist you in contacting the police or go with you to the police department, any of the following individuals at SVA can assist you:

- Title IX Coordinator
- Security Services
- The Director of Student Affairs
- The Associate Director of Student Affairs
- The Associate Director of Student Health and Counseling Services
- The Associate Director of Residence Life

SVA will investigate a violation of this policy regardless of whether a criminal investigation is being conducted. SVA will not delay its investigation, except when delay is specifically requested by law enforcement and, absent special circumstances, will not delay for more than ten days. SVA may coordinate with law enforcement as appropriate to avoid compromising the criminal investigation.

Victims may report an incident to law enforcement regardless of whether they choose to report the incident to SVA. Conversely, reporting an incident to SVA does not require the Complainant to report the incident to law enforcement. The School of Visual Arts reserves the right to report any crime to law enforcement, but, as a general rule, will not alert law enforcement to an incident of sexual misconduct without the Complainant's permission, except where there is a serious and immediate threat to the campus community, when a minor is involved, or as otherwise required by law.

In addition to the protective measures that SVA may take, law enforcement may be able to provide additional protections, such as a restraining order. SVA can assist students in contacting law enforcement and legal services organizations to learn about additional remedies that may be available.

Differences Between College Procedures and Criminal Procedures

While conduct prohibited by College policy is sometimes also unlawful (sexual harassment, for example), the College's procedures, both formal and informal, are not substitutes for the courts. College action does not follow the same rigid rules of formal legal proceedings, often includes counseling for those involved, and aspires to resolve the problem with a concern for the dignity of all. If disciplinary measures are deemed appropriate, they will be taken.

Hearings are informal in nature and do not necessarily involve formal rules of evidence. College fact-finding proceedings are conducted privately and are not open to the public. Every effort is made to preserve the confidentiality of both informal and formal proceedings, and the records produced by them.

The involvement of an individual on either a formal or informal basis in proceedings described in this policy (i.e., with the College), is neither an invitation to institute more formal proceedings outside the institution nor does it prevent an individual from doing so. The College has no control over these actions and will handle internal complaints in accordance with the policies contained in this handbook.

Internal Complaint Procedures

Complaints of Sexual Misconduct, Including Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment, Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Exploitation, Stalking and Related Retaliation Claims Regardless of whether a community member decides to file a complaint with SVA, SVA strongly encourages anyone who believes they may have been the victim of sexual violence to seek immediate assistance. In the event of an assault or other act of sexual violence, contact Security Services at 212-592-2025, New York City Police at 911, or the New York City Police sexual crimes unit at 212-374-5076. It is extremely important that victims of physical assault receive comprehensive medical attention promptly, both to ensure their health and safety and to preserve physical evidence. In the case of sexual assault, in particular, victims should go immediately to a hospital emergency room. Resources are available on campus and off-campus.

Individuals are protected from sexual misconduct regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, immigration status, citizen status or national origin or any other protected characteristic.

Filing an Internal Complaint

It is in the best interest of the entire School of Visual Arts community for individuals to report incidents of sexual misconduct. The Title IX Coordinator is designated to investigate reported incidents, address inquiries and coordinate SVA's compliance efforts. Any member of the SVA community who believes they have been subjected to sexual misconduct should submit a complaint, if possible in writing, to the Title IX Coordinator or the Director of Student Affairs. The complaint should clearly describe the alleged incident, when and where it occurred, and the desired remedy, if known. Additionally, the initiator of a formal complaint should submit any supporting materials as quickly as possible. SVA's Title IX Coordinator works closely with the Director of Student Affairs. Together, they oversee the counseling and investigation of all matters, issues and problems relating to student allegations of sexual misconduct. Generally, the Director of Student Affairs will oversee the process when a student is the respondent.

Individuals who observe or become aware of an incident of sexual misconduct are encouraged to report the incident. All reports of sexual misconduct involving students made to any SVA employee, except staff designated as confidential resources within the Counseling and Health Services Office, must be reported to SVA's Title IX Coordinator.

Responsible employees are also required to report any incident involving a student of which they become aware to the Title IX Coordinator.

A senior administrator, department chair, or coordinator, or any other person with supervisory responsibility who receives a complaint of sexual misconduct or becomes aware of an incident of sexual misconduct involving either students or employees must report the complaint/incident to the Title IX Coordinator immediately.

Reports from Individuals other than the Victim: If SVA receives a report of an incident of sexual misconduct anonymously or from a third party, the alleged victim will be informed of the report promptly. The policy and procedures will be applied in the same manner as if the alleged victim reported the incident.

Alcohol and/or Drug Use Amnesty: The health and safety of every student at SVA is of utmost importance. SVA recognizes that students who have been drinking and/or using drugs (whether such use is voluntary or Involuntary) at the time that violence, including but not limited to domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault occurs may be hesitant to report such incidents due to fear of potential consequences for their own conduct. SVA strongly encourages students to report domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to institution officials. Any victim or bystander acting in good faith or a reporting individual acting in good faith that discloses any incident of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to SVA or law enforcement will not be subject to SVA's code of conduct action for violations of alcohol and/or drug use policies occurring at or near the time of the commission of the domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault.

Passage of Time: Community members who wish to make a complaint at a later date may contact any of the staff mentioned above at any time. Please note that a delay in reporting could weaken the information, or SVA's ability to gather information, used to determine whether a person is responsible for sexual misconduct. Furthermore, the ability of the SVA to take action may be limited by the matriculation or employment status of the respondent.

Unknown or Unaffiliated Assailant: If the respondent is unknown or is not a member of the SVA community, the Title IX Coordinator will assist the complainant in identifying appropriate resources and contacting local law enforcement if the complainant would like to file a report. In addition, SVA may take other steps to protect the complainant and the community.

Processing a Complaint

Title IX requires that SVA investigate all incidents about which it knows or has reason to know in order to protect the health and safety of the SVA community. Upon receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will review the complaint to determine whether the facts as alleged would constitute a violation of SVA policy. If so, the Title IX Coordinator will open a formal investigation.

As soon as possible and no later than three business days after receiving the complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will meet with the complainant, gather additional information about the allegations, as necessary, provide a written copy of this Policy and Procedure to the complainant, explain the process, and identify available interim protective measures and support resources (as described below).

Within two business days of meeting with the complainant, the Title IX Coordinator will meet with the respondent, provide a written copy of this Policy and Procedure to the respondent, explain the process, identify and explain any interim protective measures imposed that impact the respondent, identify the provision of this policy the respondent has been accused of violating and possible sanctions, and identify available support resources. The Title IX Coordinator and/or investigator may interview the respondent during this meeting or at a separate meeting.

The Title IX Coordinator or a trained investigator appointed by the Coordinator will lead the investigation. The investigation and adjudication process, including any appeal, should be complete within 60 days of the receipt of the complaint, if not sooner. Should this process last longer than 60 days, the Coordinator will communicate the reasons and expected timeline to all parties.

Privacy

SVA offices and employees who cannot guarantee confidentiality will maintain your privacy to the greatest extent possible. The information you provide to a non-confidential resource will be relayed only as necessary for the Title IX Coordinator to investigate and/or seek a resolution. Only people who have a need to know about the incident will be informed, and information will be shared only as necessary with investigators, the complainant, witnesses and the respondent to ensure an effective and thorough investigation. Although SVA will take all appropriate steps to safeguard the privacy of the parties, the information collected during the investigation process may be subpoenaed in civil or criminal proceedings.

Interim Protective Measures

After reviewing the complaint, the Title IX Coordinator, Director of Student Affairs, or the lead investigator in consultation with the Title IX Coordinator, may take interim protective measures to protect the safety and well-being of the individuals involved and the SVA community. Interim remedial action is preliminary, and only in effect until the process is complete and a decision is rendered.

Available interim measures are listed below, and SVA determines which measures are appropriate for a particular complainant on a case-by-case basis. Not all of the measures listed below will be necessary in every case to keep victims safe and ensure their equal access to educational programs and activities. If the complainant identifies an interim measure that is not already provided, SVA will consider whether the request can be granted. In those instances where interim measures affect both the complainant and the respondent, SVA will minimize the burden on the complainant wherever appropriate.

Interim protective action is preliminary and only in effect until the investigation process is complete and a decision is rendered. Available interim protective measures include:

- An order directing the parties not to contact one another intentionally;
- changes in SVA housing accommodations;
- housing suspensions;
- changes in academic schedule or other academic accommodations;
- changes in SVA work schedule, location or reporting line;
- changes in SVA provided transportation arrangements;
- campus restrictions;
- supplying complainant with an escort to ensure the student feels safe;
- interim suspension.

These actions may be instituted at any point during the investigation process. Complainants and respondents are encouraged to request interim protective measures when needed.

Protective measures will be kept confidential to the extent possible. Only those individuals who need to be informed in order to effectuate the measures will be informed. For instance, if the individual requests a change in work schedule, the individual's supervisor(s) will need to be informed in order to effectuate the change.

Student complainants and student respondents may request review and modification of any protective measure(s) that directly impacts them, including review of the need for and terms of the protective measure(s), by submitting a letter to the Title IX Coordinator along with any evidence they wish to present. In the event the measure impacts the other party, the student will be given an opportunity to state their position and present evidence as appropriate. The Title IX Coordinator or his designee will review the submissions and make a determination.

Depending upon the circumstances, some or all of the protective measures may be lifted once the process is complete and a decision is rendered or they may be continued to assist the complainant after a determination has been made, even if it is determined that some or all of the allegations have not been substantiated.

Failure to comply with a directive relating to a protective measure may lead to further disciplinary action.

In addition to the measures that the School of Visual Arts may take, law enforcement may be able to provide additional protections, such as a restraining order. SVA can assist complainants in contacting law enforcement and legal services organizations to learn about additional remedies that may be available in criminal matters.

Advisors

Student complainants and respondents have a right to be accompanied by an advisor of their choice at all meetings, interviews and hearings related to an allegation of sexual misconduct. In cases involving allegations of domestic violence, dating violence sexual assault or stalking, the advisor may be an attorney.

Employees are entitled to be accompanied by an advisor of their choice, who may be an attorney, in cases involving allegations of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking.

Advisors are not permitted to advocate on behalf of the individual or to address the investigator, the Title IX Coordinator or the panel directly. The party may confer with the advisor, and the advisor may pass notes to the party. If the advisor is disruptive or otherwise fails to comply with these parameters, they may be asked to leave.

Notice

All parties will receive reasonable and advance written or electronic notice of any meeting they are required or eligible to attend.

Each party will be given prompt notice of any meeting relating to the proceeding at which either the complainant or the respondent will be present, except that the respondent will not be notified of meetings with the complainant relating solely to interim protective measures and other supportive accommodations.

Conflict of Interest Both the complainant and the respondent have the right to have a fair and impartial investigation, determination and appeal. If either the complainant or respondent has any reason to believe that the investigator, the Title IX Coordinator, hearing panelists or the Appeal Officer has a conflict of interest or would otherwise be unable to be fair and impartial, the concerned party should submit a letter explaining the basis for their concern. Concerns regarding the investigator, the hearing panel or the Appeal Officer should be submitted to the Title IX Coordinator. Concerns regarding the Title IX Coordinator should be submitted to the Appeal Officer. The other party will be provided with a copy of the letter and will have an opportunity to respond. If based upon those submissions and any independent inquiry the decision-maker may choose to make, the decision-maker determines that there is a conflict of interest, another individual will be appointed to take on the role. If it is found that there is no such conflict, the individual will continue to fulfill their appointed role. Concerns regarding conflicts of interest should be raised as soon as they are identified and prior to the individual with the alleged conflict's rendering their determination, e.g. prior to the submission of the investigation report, the determination, or the appeal decision.

Mediated Resolution

Where appropriate and with the consent of the complainant, the Title IX Coordinator or investigator may attempt to mediate a resolution of the matter as amicably and privately as possible. If a satisfactory resolution is reached, the matter will be considered closed. If it becomes clear that a mediated resolution will not be possible, the matter will be investigated. Complaints of sexual assault, however, will not be mediated under any circumstances.

Formal Investigation

Within seven days of receiving the complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will commence an investigation or will designate an investigator who has been trained regarding the investigation of claims of sexual misconduct. Where the complaint is initiated by a student against another student, the Director of Student Affairs will oversee the investigation. During the investigation, both parties will have the opportunity to be heard and will be kept informed of the status of the investigation as deemed appropriate.

The investigator will conduct a prompt, fair, impartial, and thorough investigation. During the investigation, the appointed investigator will:

- interview the complainant, the respondent, and any material witnesses (the investigator will not interview witnesses whose sole purpose is to provide character information);
- gather all relevant documentary and/or physical evidence from the complainant, respondent, and witnesses; (This may include, but is not limited to, texts, emails, photos, facebook posts, voicemail messages, etc.)
- complete the investigation in a timely manner, without unnecessary deviation from the intended timeline; and
- maintain communication with the complainant and the respondent on the status of the investigation and overall process.

Information re Romantic and Sexual History - Neither the investigator, nor any hearing panel, will consider information concerning the romantic or sexual history of either the complainant or the respondent, except as provided by the complainant or respondent relating to their shared sexual history. If either offers such information, the other will have the right to respond.

Information re Mental Health Diagnosis or Treatment History - Each party shall have the right to object to the investigator and/or the hearing panel's consideration of their own mental health history or treatment. In the event such an objection is raised, neither the hearing panel nor the investigator will consider information regarding mental health diagnosis or treatment.

Prior Conduct Violations - The investigator will not consider prior conduct violations in assessing whether a policy violation occurred but such information may be considered by the Title IX Coordinator or the hearing panel in determining appropriate sanctions.

Declining to Participate - Complainants have the right to withdraw a complaint at any time. If the complainant chooses to withdraw the complaint prior to the completion of the investigation, the Title IX Coordinator will determine whether to continue to pursue the complaint employing the factors outlined in the section of this page titled "CAN I REQUEST SVA NOT TAKE ACTION?"

No adverse inference will be made against a student respondent as a result of their decision not to participate in an investigation, but the investigator will complete the investigation and a determination will be made based upon the information available.

Adjudication

SVA has two different adjudication procedures, depending upon the whether the respondent is (a) a student or (b) an employee or third-party doing business with the College.

Procedure When the Respondent Is a Faculty Member, Staff Member or Third Party Doing Business with SVA

Review of Statement

Prior to the conclusion of the investigation, the Complainant and Respondent will each have an opportunity to review the investigator's written recitation of the statements presented during their own interview(s) and to provide the investigator with any corrections or clarifications that may be necessary.

Impact Statement

Within two days of reviewing the investigator's recitation of their statements, the complainant may submit a statement of impact to the Title IX Coordinator, which will be considered by the Title IX Coordinator in connection with determining an appropriate sanction in the event a policy violation is found.

Investigation Report

At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator will prepare a written investigation report. The report will clearly set forth the prohibited conduct alleged and will include summaries of all witness interviews and any relevant documentary or physical evidence. The report will further provide the investigator's assessment of whether it is more likely than not that the prohibited conduct occurred and the evidentiary basis for that assessment.

Determination of Responsibility and Discipline

The Investigator's fact-finding report and recommendations will be submitted to the Title IX Coordinator within four weeks of the Title IX Coordinator's receipt of the complaint, absent unanticipated circumstances. The Title IX Coordinator will assess the information contained in the Investigator's report, conduct any further inquiry he may deem necessary and then make a determination using the preponderance of the evidence standard; in other words, the Title IX Coordinator will determine whether it is more likely than not that a policy violation occurred.

If the Title IX Coordinator finds the respondent responsible for violating the policy, he shall determine the appropriate disciplinary sanction after considering the relevant factors, which include the severity of the violation, the circumstances surrounding the lack of consent (such as force, threat, coercion, intentional incapacitation, etc.), the respondent's state of mind (intentional, knowing, reckless, negligent, etc.), the respondent's history of misconduct, including prior findings of sexual misconduct, the ongoing impact on the complainant, the ongoing impact on the campus environment, and any ongoing threat to the campus community. In determining the appropriate sanction, the Title IX Coordinator may consult with the Provost if the respondent is a faculty member, or the respondent's manager if the respondent is a staff member.

Sanctions may include:

- revocation of degree,
- suspension,
- demotion,
- termination of employment,
- revocation of honors or awards,
- warning or reprimand,
- disciplinary probation,
- loss of housing privilege,
- loss of other privileges (including but not limited to use of facilities and participation in campus organizations and activities),
- community service, and/or, mandated training and education

The Title IX Coordinator will provide both the complainant and the respondent with written notice of the determination simultaneously and within five calendar days of receipt of the investigator's report and recommendation. In cases of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and/or stalking, the complainant and the respondent will be informed simultaneously and in writing of any sanctions imposed and the rationale for the sanction. In other cases of sexual misconduct, the complainant will only be informed of discipline to the extent such sanctions relate to the complainant. For instance, if the respondent has been restricted from being present in the complainant's dormitory, the complainant would be informed of that restriction.

Appeal

When the complainant is a student and there are allegations of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking, either party may appeal the determination and/or sanction. When neither the complainant nor the respondent is a student, there is no appeal, and the Title IX Coordinator's determination stands.

When an appeal is available, after receiving written notification of the Title IX Coordinator's decision, both the complainant and the respondent have two weeks to appeal the decision. During that time, both the complainant and the respondent will have an opportunity to review the investigation report (redacted to remove the names and personally identifying information of students, other than the complainant, consistent with FERPA) thoroughly, but copies of the report will not be provided to them. In order to initiate an appeal, the student must submit a formal letter of appeal specifying the grounds upon which the appeal is based, and must include the reasons or circumstances why the individual believes that the decision should be reevaluated, explaining how those grounds materially affected the outcome. The appeal should be made to the Office of the Provost in writing and addressed to the Office of the Provost, School of Visual Arts, 209 East 23rd Street, New York, NY 10010.

The only accepted grounds for an appeal are:

- new evidence, which was not available at the time the Title IX Coordinator completed his review, has come to light;
- an error in the process, as outlined by this policy, which materially impacted the outcome;
- the sanction(s) imposed were not appropriate in light of the evidence presented.

Disagreement with the finding or sanctions is not, by itself, grounds for appeal.

If the appeal letter does not bring forward sufficient grounds for appeal, the appeal will be denied and the matter will be closed.

If the appeal letter identifies arguable grounds for appeal, within two business days of receipt of the appeal, the Provost will (i) provide the other party with an opportunity to review the appeal and (ii) appoint an Appeal Panel of three trained SVA employees. The other party and the investigator will have five calendar days thereafter to submit materials in response to the appeal.

A party's decision not to participate in the investigatory process does not preclude him or her from appealing, but, except in extraordinary circumstances, a party who does not respond to the investigator's inquiries during the investigatory process will be precluded from appealing on the ground that new evidence has come to light.

After reviewing the Investigator's Report and Recommendation, the hearing record and determination, and the materials submitted by the parties, the Appeal Panel may decide to:

- affirm the decision of the Title IX Coordinator. In this case, the initial decision is final.
- remand the matter back to the Title IX Coordinator to:
 - reevaluate his decision in light of the Appeal Officer’s findings or
 - reopen the investigation; or
- modify the sanctions imposed by the Title IX Coordinator.

The Appeal Panel’s decision will be transmitted in writing to the complainant, the respondent, and the Title IX Coordinator simultaneously within five calendar days of the non-appealing party’s submission. The finding of the Appeal Panel is final.

If neither party files an appeal within two weeks of the determination’s rendering, the Title IX Coordinator will provide both parties with written notice that the determination is final.

Procedure When the Respondent Is a Student

Investigation Report

At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator will prepare a written investigation report. The report will clearly set forth the prohibited conduct alleged and will include summaries of all witness interviews and any relevant documentary or physical evidence. The report will further provide the investigator’s assessment of whether it is more likely than not that the prohibited conduct occurred and the evidentiary basis for that assessment.

If supported by the investigation findings, the investigator will present the accused student with a notice of the policy provisions that were allegedly violated, including the date, time, location and factual allegations concerning the violation and refer the matter to a Title IX Grievance Committee.

Disciplinary Hearing

SVA provides the complainant and accused with the opportunity to utilize a prompt, fair, and impartial disciplinary hearing to determine whether sexual misconduct occurred.

Hearing Panel

The hearing panel will be composed of SVA staff members who receive annual training on the College’s policies and procedures, issues relating to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking, the effects of trauma, impartiality, and the respondent’s right to a presumption of being not responsible until a finding of responsibility is made. The panel will consist of three members, with one designated as chair. Students are not permitted to participate on the hearing panel. SVA staff members who have a conflict of interest will not be permitted to serve on the panel either. See [link to conflict of interest provision].

In advance of the Hearing

Prior to the hearing, the complainant and respondent will have an opportunity to review the investigation report and any other materials that will be presented to the hearing panel. The names and other identifying information of other students will be redacted from such materials in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), except to the extent that doing so would interfere with the purpose of Title IX to eliminate sex-based discrimination. The Title IX Coordinator will supervise this review and ensure that reasonable time is afforded for review prior to the hearing.

Hearing

Each party will be notified in writing of the date, time and location of the hearing with as much advance notice as possible. The scheduling and timing of hearing sessions shall be undertaken with due regard to the importance of completing the hearing in an expeditious manner and with consideration of the schedules and commitments of all participants. The hearing is a closed proceeding and nobody other than the parties and their respective advisors, the panel, witnesses (when called to appear) and necessary SVA personnel may be present during the hearing. In the event that either party cannot be physically present during the hearing, arrangements will be made to allow the individual to participate in the proceeding remotely whenever possible. Upon request, arrangements will also be made to allow the parties to participate in the hearing without being in the same room at the same time. If a party chooses not to participate in a hearing, it may be held in their absence, depending upon the circumstances.

Generally, the panel will question the investigator, the complainant, the respondent and any other necessary witnesses in that order. The complainant and respondent will each be permitted to make a closing statement, which may include an impact statement.

During the course of the hearing, the parties will have an opportunity to suggest witnesses and to propose in writing that certain questions be asked of witnesses, including the other party and the investigator. The parties are not, however, permitted to question witnesses directly. The panel has the discretion to determine which witnesses to call and to revise and/or decide not to ask proposed questions. The panel will not hear character testimony.

The hearing will be audio recorded or transcribed. The hearing record will be maintained for at least five years, and each party will be afforded an opportunity to have access to a full and fair record of the hearing.

The hearing panel will evaluate the evidence and determine whether it is more likely than not that a policy violation occurred. If a policy violation is found the hearing panel will determine the appropriate sanction. Sanctions may include:

- expulsion,
- revocation of degree,
- suspension,
- demotion,
- termination of employment,
- revocation of honors or awards,
- warning or reprimand,
- disciplinary probation,

- loss of housing privilege,
- loss of other privileges (including but not limited to use of facilities and participation in campus organizations and activities),
- community service, and/or,
- mandated training and education.

In determining the appropriate sanction, the hearing panel will consider the following relevant factors: the severity of the violation, the circumstances surrounding the lack of consent (such as force, threat, coercion, intentional incapacitation, etc.), the respondent's state of mind (intentional, knowing, reckless, negligent, etc.), the respondent's history of misconduct, including prior findings of sexual misconduct, the ongoing impact on the complainant, the ongoing impact on the campus environment, and any ongoing threat to the campus community. In determining the appropriate sanction, the hearing panel may consult with the Title IX Coordinator and/or the Director of Student Affairs.

After the hearing is completed, the complainant and accused will receive simultaneous notification, in writing, of the hearing panel's determination. In cases of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and/or stalking, the complainant and the respondent will be informed simultaneously and in writing of any sanctions imposed and the rationale for the sanction. In other cases of sexual misconduct, the complainant will only be informed of discipline to the extent such sanctions relate to the complainant. For instance, if the respondent has been restricted from being present in the complainant's dormitory, the complainant would be informed of that restriction.

Transcript Notations

Any student who is found responsible for domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking (or any other crime of violence) and suspended will have a notation on their transcript indicating, "suspended after a finding of responsibility for a code of conduct violation."

Any student who is found responsible for domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking (or any other crime of violence) and expelled will have a notation on their transcript indicating, "expelled after a finding of responsibility for a code of conduct violation."

Any student who withdraws from SVA while a complaint of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is pending against him or her and declines to complete the investigatory and disciplinary process will have a notation on their transcript indicating, "withdrew with conduct charges pending."

If a finding of responsibility is vacated for any reason, the transcript notation will be removed. Students shall have the right to seek the removal of a notation of suspension after one year has elapsed since the end of the suspension. Students wishing to request removal should submit a letter to the Title IX Coordinator setting forth the justification for removal. Notations of expulsion cannot be removed.

Appeal

After receiving written notification of the Title IX Coordinator's decision or hearing panel's determination, both the complainant and the respondent have two weeks to appeal the decision. During that time, both the complainant and the respondent will have an opportunity to review the hearing record (redacted to remove the names and personally identifying information of other students consistent with FERPA) thoroughly, but copies of the record will not be provided to them. In order to initiate an appeal, the student must submit a formal letter of appeal specifying the grounds upon which the appeal is based, and must include the reasons or circumstances why the student believes that the decision should be reevaluated, explaining how those grounds materially affected the outcome. The appeal should be made to the Office of the Provost in writing and addressed to the Office of the Provost, School of Visual Arts, 209 East 23rd Street, New York, NY 10010.

The only accepted grounds for an appeal are:

- new evidence, which was not available at the time the Title IX Coordinator completed his review, has come to light;
- an error in the process, as outlined by this policy, which materially impacted the outcome;
- the sanction(s) imposed were not appropriate in light of the evidence presented.

Disagreement with the finding or sanctions is not, by itself, grounds for appeal.

If the appeal letter does not bring forward sufficient grounds for appeal, the appeal will be denied and the matter will be closed.

If the appeal letter identifies arguable grounds for appeal, within two business days of receipt of the appeal, the Provost will (i) appoint an Appeal Panel of three trained SVA employees and (ii) provide the other party with an opportunity to review the appeal. The party not appealing will have five calendar days thereafter to submit materials in response to the appeal.

A party's decision not to participate in the investigatory process does not preclude him or her from appealing, but, except in extraordinary circumstances, a party who does not respond to the investigator's inquiries during the investigatory process will be precluded from appealing on the ground that new evidence has come to light.

After reviewing the Investigator's Report and Recommendation, the hearing record and determination, and the materials submitted by the parties, the Appeal Panel may decide to:

- affirm the decision of the Title IX Coordinator. In this case, the initial decision is final.
- remand the matter back to the Title IX Coordinator to:
 - reevaluate his decision in light of the Appeal Officer's findings or
 - reopen the investigation; or
- modify the sanctions imposed by the Title IX Coordinator.

The Appeal Panel’s decision will be transmitted in writing to the complainant, the respondent, and the Title IX Coordinator simultaneously within five calendar days of the non-appealing party’s submission. The finding of the Appeal Panel is final.

If neither party files an appeal within two weeks of the determination’s rendering, the Title IX Coordinator will provide both parties with written notice that the determination is final.

Timelines

A timeline letter outlining the major steps of the investigatory process will be provided to both parties so that they are informed and there is transparency as to what can be expected. The entire process from receipt of complaint until determination on appeal should be completed within 60 days. If circumstances arise that require the extension of certain deadlines (including but not limited to unavailability of witnesses due to winter or summer break), the parties will be informed of the change and of the anticipated date of completion of that stage of the process.

Compliance with Sanctions and Accommodations

At the conclusion of the investigation and adjudication process, the Title IX Coordinator will be responsible for ensuring compliance with all imposed sanctions and providing accommodations with the goal of preventing the recurrence of sexual misconduct and assisting the complainant. Failure to comply may result in further disciplinary action.

Ongoing Accommodations for the Complainant

Regardless of the determination, the complainant may request ongoing or additional accommodations. Such requests should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. Determinations as to whether such accommodations are appropriate or feasible will be made by the Title IX Coordinator in consultation, where appropriate, with the Director of Student Affairs. Ongoing accommodations may include: moving the complainant's residence, changing the complainant's academic schedule, allowing the complainant to withdraw from or retake a class without penalty, providing the complainant with access to additional academic support.

Independent Investigation and Review by Trustees

The School of Visual Arts, in its discretion, may conduct an investigation independent of or in addition to the procedures outlined above, at any time. In addition, although the Board of Trustees will not typically be involved in the receipt, investigation and remediation of complaints of discrimination and harassment, the Board of Trustees or a committee authorized by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees is authorized to modify the procedures herein as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, and to take remedial action as it deems appropriate.

Complaints of Discrimination, Discriminatory Harassment, and Related Retaliation

(Complaints of sexual or sex-based harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking are governed by separate procedures).

Support systems and complaint procedures are in place to help anyone who feels they have been discriminated against or harassed. Since discrimination and harassment can take many forms and occur in a wide range of settings and behaviors, individuals may feel uncertain whether or not an experience is harassment or discrimination. Nonetheless, anyone who feels they may be the victim of harassment or discrimination by a member of the SVA community should take immediate action. Early reporting and intervention has proven to be the most effective method of resolving actual or perceived incidents of harassment. Therefore, SVA strongly urges the prompt reporting of complaints or concerns, as outlined in the Student Complaint Procedures and Faculty/Staff Complaint Procedures.

Student Complaint Procedures

Students who feel they have been subjected to harassment or discrimination should speak with the Title IX Coordinator, the Director of Student Affairs, their advisor, a faculty or staff member, or their department chair. SVA's Title IX Coordinator works closely with the Director of Student Affairs. Together, they oversee the counseling and investigation of all matters, issues and problems relating to student allegations of harassment and discrimination. The Title IX Coordinator's office is on the 8th floor of the 380 Second Avenue building. He may be reached at 212.592.2620 or titleix@sva.edu. Any senior administrator, department chair, or coordinator, or any other person with supervisory responsibility who receives a complaint of harassment or discrimination must report the complaint to the Title IX Coordinator immediately.

Individuals who believe they are being subjected to harassment may choose to speak directly with the offender and advise him or her that the behavior is unwelcome and request that it be discontinued. Sometimes, this approach can be an effective way of confronting harassment or bias.

Individuals who believe they have been subjected to harassment or discrimination may also choose to meet informally with the Title IX Coordinator, the Director of Student Affairs, or another member of the support system. During that meeting, the individual may:

- Bring a friend, advisor or someone they trust to the meeting.
- Discuss the experience or situation without naming the person they feel is harassing them. However, failure to identify the individual may result in SVA's inability to investigate or take remedial action.
- Ask any questions about making a formal complaint or what is involved in a hearing.
- Choose to make a formal written complaint.
- Decline to make a formal complaint. However, even when an individual declines to make a formal complaint, SVA may proceed with an inquiry.

To initiate a formal grievance process, individuals must submit a written statement to the Title IX Coordinator alleging prohibited discrimination, harassment or retaliation. In the statement, the individual should request any relief sought from the College. Prompt submission of formal complaints is encouraged.

Upon receipt of a formal written complaint, the Title IX Coordinator, the Director of Student Affairs or other appropriate staff member designated by the Title IX Coordinator will consider the written grievance and assess whether investigation is appropriate. If so, an investigation will be conducted, which may include interviewing the individual who submitted the complaint and others who may have relevant knowledge and reviewing documentary materials or other information. The time it may take to conduct the investigation will depend on a variety of factors, including the nature and scope of the allegations, but the College will seek to resolve the grievance promptly. Only people who have a need to know about the issue will be informed, and information will be shared only as necessary with investigators, witnesses and other relevant parties.

Upon the conclusion of the investigation, the Title IX Coordinator or Director of Student Affairs will determine whether it is more likely than not that SVA policy has been violated. If a violation is found to have occurred, the Title IX Coordinator or Director of Student Affairs will take appropriate action to ensure that the violation is remedied, which may include referral to the Student Disciplinary Committee if the complaint is against a student. If no violation is found to have occurred, the complaining party may appeal the decision to SVA's Provost within two weeks of learning of the determination by submitting a letter specifying the basis for the appeal.

Questions regarding procedures related to student complaints of discrimination, harassment or retaliation, or any other matter that may be relevant to Title IX issues, should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator.

Faculty and Staff Complaint Procedures

Faculty and administrative staff members should submit their discrimination, harassment, or retaliation complaints to the Executive Director of Human Resources at 212.592.2620 or titleix@sva.edu, 380 Second Avenue, 8th Floor. Complaints can also be sent to the Associate Director of Human Resources, at 212.592.2604, 380 Second Avenue, 8th Floor.

All complaints against faculty and staff under this policy will be promptly and thoroughly investigated. If the investigation reveals that a violation of SVA Policy occurred, SVA will take prompt and appropriate remedial action, including disciplinary action, which may include reprimand/verbal counseling, training, censure, removal of privileges, letters of warning or suspension, and dismissal.

Resources and Support for Victims of Sexual Misconduct

Medical Attention and Evidence Preservation

Victims of sexual violence, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking, are encouraged to seek prompt medical attention and to report the incident to the police. To gain assistance in getting to an emergency room, a victim can call 911 or notify SVA's Security Services at 212.696.4632. The nearest emergency rooms to SVA are at:

Beth Israel Medical Center, First Avenue and 16th Street - 212.420.2840

Bellevue Hospital, First Avenue and 27th Street - 212.562.4347

NYU Langone Medical Center, 550 First Avenue - 212.263.7300

The hospital staff will do a detailed examination of the entire body, including an internal exam, where appropriate, collect evidence, check for injuries, and address pregnancy concerns and the possibility of exposure to sexually transmitted infections.

Seeking medical attention will in no way obligate a victim to file a complaint or press criminal charges. Conversely, electing not to seek medical attention or to contact police will not impact SVA's investigation or Title IX grievance process.

Victims are advised that the best way to preserve evidence of sexual assault is to avoid bathing or washing yourself before being examined. You should not take a shower, wash hands or face, comb your hair, or douche. Normal everyday behavior, such as going to the bathroom, can destroy or remove evidence of sexual assault; you should try to avoid doing so if possible. Similarly, you should try not to smoke or drink anything. Altering your appearance can hide bruising or lacerations that can be cited as evidence when pressing charges. It is best not to apply make-up or any other substance that can change your appearance.

Evidence of the assault can be found in the fibers of your clothes, strands of your hair, or on other parts of your body, so it is important to try your best to preserve as much evidence as possible. Clothing, towels, sheets and other items should not be washed or moved, if possible. The clothing worn at the time of the assault should be brought to the hospital in a sanitary container, such as a paper bag or a clean sheet. If the clothing worn at the time of the assault is still being worn, it is advisable to bring a change of clothes to the hospital, if possible.

Security Services can assist you in securing the scene to preserve evidence as well.

It is important to note that failure to take the steps described above does not preclude you from reporting an incident to the SVA or to the police.

Who Can I Talk to? Will it be Confidential?

Support services are in place to help any member of the SVA community who feels he or she is a victim of sexual misconduct.

The School of Visual Arts encourages any person who has experienced sexual violence to talk to someone about what happened, so victims can get the support that they need, and so SVA can respond appropriately. Different employees on campus have different abilities to maintain confidentiality.

- Some are required to maintain near complete confidentiality; talking to them is sometimes call a “privileged communication.”
- Some employees are required to report all the details of an incident involving a student (including the identities of both the victim and the alleged perpetrator) to the Title IX Coordinator. A report to these employees (called “responsible employees”) constitutes a report to SVA and generally obligates the Title IX Coordinator or his designee to investigate the incident and take appropriate steps to address the situation.

This policy is intended to make community members aware of the various reporting and confidential disclosure options available to them.

Privileged and Confidential Communications

When reporting a violation of this policy, there are resources that can provide confidentiality, sharing options and advice without any obligation to inform other College staff members unless requested. Such on-campus confidential resources include the counselors within Student Health and Counseling Services, located in the George Washington Residence, 23 Lexington Avenue, 3rd Floor, and by telephone at 212-592-2246.

Additionally, community members can seek out assistance from an off-campus crisis center, which can maintain confidentiality (including the sources listed under “Health” in SVA Essentials).

Who is obligated to report what I tell them to the School of Visual Arts?

A “responsible employee” is an SVA employee who has the authority to redress sexual violence, who has the duty to report incidents of sexual violence or other student misconduct, or who a student could reasonably believe has this authority or duty.

A responsible employee must report to the Title IX coordinator all relevant details about any incident of sexual misconduct involving a student – including the names of the victim and alleged perpetrator(s), any witnesses, and any other relevant facts, including the date, time and specific location of the alleged incident.

To the extent possible, information reported to a responsible employee will be shared only with people responsible for handling the SVA’s response to the report. A responsible employee should not share information with law enforcement without the victim’s consent or unless the victim has also reported the incident to law enforcement.

The following categories of employees are the SVA’s responsible employees:

- Student Affairs Staff
- Residential Life Staff (including RAs)
- Admissions Staff
- Security Services Staff
- Officers of the College
- Human Resources Staff
- Faculty

Before a victim reveals any information to a responsible employee, the employee should ensure that the victim understands the employee’s reporting obligations – and, if the victim wants to maintain confidentiality, direct the victim to confidential resources.

If the victim wants to tell the responsible employee what happened but also maintain confidentiality, the employee should tell the victim that the School of Visual Arts will consider the request, but cannot guarantee that SVA will be able to honor it. In reporting the details of the incident to the Title IX Coordinator, the responsible employee will also inform the Coordinator of the victim’s request for confidentiality.

Responsible employees will not pressure a victim to request confidentiality, but will honor and support the victim’s wishes, including for SVA to fully investigate an incident. By the same token, responsible employees will not pressure a victim to make a full report if the victim is not ready to do so.

Even SVA offices and employees who cannot guarantee confidentiality will maintain your privacy to the greatest extent possible. The information you provide to a non-confidential resource will be relayed only as necessary for the Title IX Coordinator to investigate and/or seek a resolution. Only people who have a need to know about the incident will be informed, and information will be shared only as necessary with investigators, the complainant, witnesses and the respondent to ensure an effective and thorough investigation. Although SVA will take all appropriate steps to safeguard the privacy of the parties, the information collected during the investigation process may be subpoenaed in civil or criminal proceedings.

Public Awareness Events

Sharing information regarding an incident of sexual misconduct at a public awareness event, such as Take Back the Night, the Clothesline Project, survivor speak-outs, and other forums, does not constitute notice to SVA and will not trigger an investigation under this policy.

Can I request that the School of Visual Arts not take action regarding an incident?

If a victim of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking discloses an incident to a responsible employee but wishes to maintain confidentiality or requests that no investigation into a particular incident be conducted or disciplinary action taken, SVA must weigh that request against its obligation to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for all members of the SVA community, including the victim. If in making a formal complaint, the complainant requests confidentiality or asks that the complaint not be pursued, the College still must take all reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the complaint within the parameters of the request.

If SVA honors the request for confidentiality, a victim must understand that SVA's ability to meaningfully investigate the incident and pursue disciplinary action against the alleged perpetrator(s) may be limited.

Although rare, there are times when SVA may not be able to honor a victim's request in order to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for the entire SVA community.

The Title IX Coordinator will evaluate requests for confidentiality once a responsible employee is on notice of alleged sexual violence. When weighing a victim's request for confidentiality or that no investigation or discipline be pursued, the Title IX Coordinator will consider a range of factors, including the following:

- The increased risk that the alleged perpetrator will commit additional acts of sexual or other violence, such as:
 - whether there have been other sexual violence complaints about the same alleged perpetrator;
 - whether the alleged perpetrator has a history of arrests or records from a prior school indicating a history of violence;
 - whether the allegation indicates an escalation of unlawful conduct by the alleged perpetrator;

- whether the alleged perpetrator threatened further sexual violence or other violence against the victim or others;
- whether the sexual violence was committed by multiple perpetrators;
- the seriousness of the alleged conduct;
- the alleged perpetrator's rights to receive information under FERPA;
- whether the sexual violence was perpetrated with a weapon;
- whether the victim is a minor;
- whether SVA possesses other means to obtain relevant evidence of the sexual violence (e.g., security cameras or personnel, physical evidence);
- whether the victim's report reveals a pattern of perpetration (e.g., via illicit use of drugs or alcohol) at a given location or by a particular group.

The presence of one or more of these factors could lead SVA to investigate and, if appropriate, pursue disciplinary action. If none of these factors is present, SVA will likely respect the victim's request for confidentiality.

If SVA cannot ensure confidentiality, the complainant will be so informed prior to the start of an investigation. To the extent possible, SVA will only share information with people responsible for handling SVA's response. Even if SVA cannot take disciplinary action against the alleged perpetrator because the complainant insists on confidentiality, it may pursue other steps to limit the effects of the alleged conduct and prevent its recurrence.

SVA will remain ever mindful of the victim's well-being, and will take ongoing steps to protect the victim from retaliation or harm and work with the victim to create a safety plan. Retaliation against the victim, whether by students or SVA employees, will not be tolerated. SVA will also:

- assist the victim in accessing other available victim advocacy, academic support, counseling, disability, and health or mental health services;
- provide other security and support, which could include issuing a no-contact order, helping arrange a change of living or working arrangements or course schedules (including for the alleged perpetrator pending the outcome of an investigation) or adjustments for assignments or tests; and
- inform the victim of the right to report a crime to campus or local law enforcement – and provide the victim with assistance if the victim wishes to do so.

SVA will not require a victim to participate in any investigation or disciplinary proceeding. Because SVA is under a continuing obligation to address the issue of sexual violence campus-wide, reports of sexual violence (including non-identifying reports) will also prompt SVA to consider broader remedial action – such as increased monitoring, supervision or security at locations where the reported sexual violence occurred; increasing education and prevention efforts, including to targeted population groups; conducting climate assessments/victimization surveys; and/or revisiting its policies and practices.

If SVA determines that it can respect a victim's request for confidentiality, it will also take immediate action as necessary to protect and assist the victim.

Will Information about an incident be shared with my parents?

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) allows the School of Visual Arts to share information with parents when (i) there is a health or safety emergency or (ii) where the student is a dependent on the parent's prior year federal tax return. Generally speaking, SVA will not disclose a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking to a student's parents without the student's permission.

Duty to Report Statistics and Timely Warning

The School of Visual Arts has a duty to report data about various forms of sexual misconduct in accordance with The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Act (Clery Act). No personally identifiable information is disclosed, but statistical information is disclosed as part of SVA's Annual Security Report. The information to be shared includes the date, location type (residence hall, public property, off-campus, etc.), and specific crime category.

The Clery Act also requires SVA to issue a "timely warning" when it receives a report of a crime that poses a serious and continuing threat to the campus community, except in circumstances where the issuance of the warning may compromise pending law enforcement efforts or when the warning itself could potentially identify the reporting individual. No personally identifying information about the victim will be disclosed in a timely warning.
