

HOPE ART COMPETITION AND EXHIBITION

This year's Hope Art Competition invites current SVA students to create an image to be utilized in print and online advertisements for the Office of Student Health and Counseling Services. Entries will be 12"x 12" images in any medium, and used in a campaign that will promote personal wellness in the SVA community. Entries will be evaluated on how well they can communicate the theme for an upcoming Student Health and Counseling Services advertisement.

Finalists will have their design featured in an exhibition at the Westside Project Space (133/141 West 21 Street). This year's competition will be judged by staff from the Department of Student Affairs. The winner will be awarded $600.
