International applicants

International applicants are welcome, however, the College cannot provide you with a visa, nor assist you in obtaining one. As a general rule, international students can take a vocational or recreational course as long as it is incidental to their main purpose of visiting the U.S. Please note that SVA is not authorized to issue the Form I-20, Certificate of Eligibility for the F-1 student visa for the Division of Continuing Education. Non-matriculated students are not eligible to apply for the F-1 student visa. Further questions about visa status can be directed to the International Students Office at iso@sva.edu

Participants are expected to speak and understand English well enough to hold meaningful conversation with faculty and other participants. A TOEFL score is not required for admission.

Priority Deadline: April 15, 2018

Applicants who submit their materials before the priority deadline will be informed of their acceptance status by May 1. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis once the priority deadline has passed.

Early application is highly recommended.
