Section I.c Enrollment

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled.

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Additional guidance on reporting race and ethnicity data.

Total number of students enrolled in 2014-15:	16
Unduplicated number of males enrolled in 2014-15:	2
Unduplicated number of females enrolled in 2014-15:	14

Section I.d Supervised Clinical Experience

Provide the following information about supervised clinical experience in 2014-15.

Average number of clock hours of supervised clinical experience required prior to student teaching	100
Average number of clock hours required for student teaching	260
Average number of clock hours required for mentoring/induction support	0
Number of full-time equivalent faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year	1
Number of adjunct faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year (IHE and PreK-12 staff)	0
Number of students in supervised clinical experience during this academic year	14

Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

Section I.e Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2014-15. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area.

If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (S205(b)(1)(H))

Section II Assurances

Please certify that your institution is in compliance with the following assurances. (§205(a)(1)(A)(iii), §206(b)) Note: Be prepared to provide documentation and evidence for your responses, when requested, to support the following assurances.

Preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

Yes

Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

Yes

Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

NA

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

Yes

Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

Yes

Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

The MAT program has high placements rates and surveys of MAT graduates indicate they were well prepared for the first year of teaching. Training in providing instruction to children with disabilities and limited English proficient students is provided in Psychology of Special Populations and Special Topics Seminar lectures on literacy. Training in providing instruction to children from low income families is provided in the Curriculum for Special Populations course which focuses on teaching children in a homeless shelter in Manhattan and includes practica at that site. Student teaching takes place in both elementary and secondary levels in New York City public schools and provides training on how to effectively teach in urban schools.

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

State

New York State Education Department and Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

No

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

The MAT course, Technology in Art Education, prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction. Technologies and topics covered include Photoshop, iMovie, Lightroom, digital photography, iPhone, blogs, social media websites, video and sound editing.

Use of technology to effectively collect manage and analyze data to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement includes internet research (including online libraries) word processing, digital photography and Photoshop, PowerPoint presentation, use of a drop site as well as SKYPE, instant messaging and Garage Band for audio recording and editing, and use of a SmartBoard. These technologies are addressed in Curriculum Arts Integrated Educational Foundations, Thesis: Compilation & Presentation, Special Study 1, Special Study 2 and Student Teaching in elementary and secondary levels.

Section VI Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

The Psychology of Special Populations is a required course that addresses the learning and developmental needs of diverse populations of students, specifically autism spectrum, attention deficit, learning disabled, multiple disabled, and emotionally disturbed students. The current instructional and assessment practices, including Response to Intervention, are covered in-depth in the course, as well as collaborative strategies to address the Core Standards in curriculum, and methods to support special needs students' art making in both inclusive and self-contained settings.

The Special Topics Seminar 2 (literacy lectures) prepares teachers to teach students with disabilities and/or limited English proficient students effectively in literacy within the arts. Several case studies that focus on special needs and second-language children are also examined. Assessment of second-language acquisition versus linguistic disabilities is addressed in Special Topics Seminar 2, along with literacy strategies that are in alignment with Core Standards.

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
NA
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
NA
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
NA

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Section VII Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

The Master of Arts in Teaching program provides the course work and student teaching required for the New York State Initial Certification in Art, pre-K through grade 12. Degree candidates must successfully complete 36 credits, including all required courses, with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0, and can matriculate in a full-time, one-year program or in a part-time, two-year program. In the final semester, each student is required to complete a thesis project, which must be reviewed and approved by the thesis director and the department chair in order for the student to be eligible for degree conferral. Course work relates directly to fieldwork and student teaching through discussion of course development, classroom management and age-appropriate application of educational theory. MAT students will complete 100 hours of fieldwork and 40 days of student teaching in public elementary, middle and high school placements as well as practica at a homeless shelter under SVA faculty supervision. The Master of Arts in Teaching in Art Education program is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The School of Visual Arts is accredited by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, 215.662.5606. The Commission on Higher Education is an institutional accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education and the Council on Higher Education Accreditation. The School of Visual Arts is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Art and Design.
